The Board of the Hales Parents' Auxiliary met every two weeks to evaluate past accomplishments and to plan future successes.

PARENTS'

The annual Las Vegas Nites have always been immensely successful. Father Terry and Board members drew the lucky number for the grand prize.

LOS VEGAS

ACTIVITIES

The Hales Men's Club is another vital organization in the Spartan community. The members posed for the camera after a long afternoon chaperoning a big football crowd.

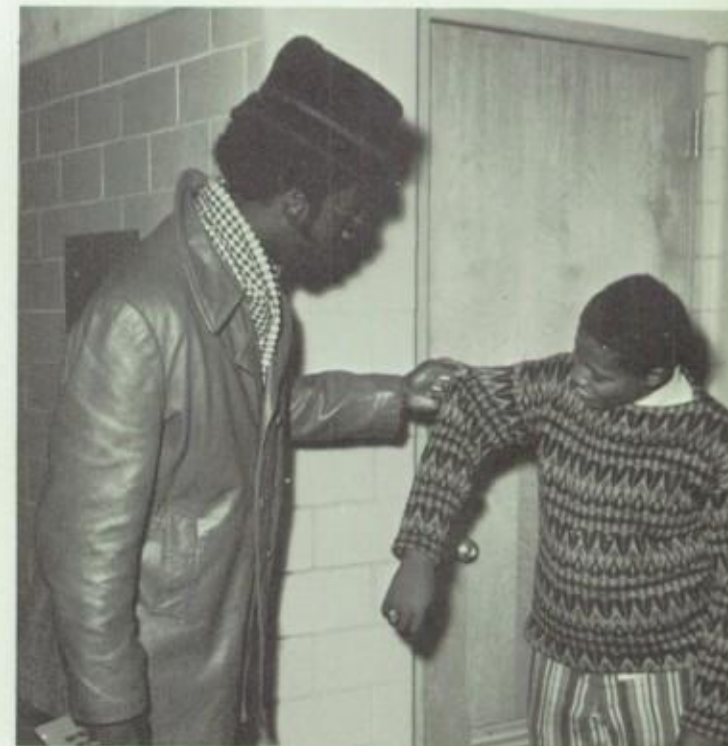

The students who made the Honor Rolls did so by long and diligent study.

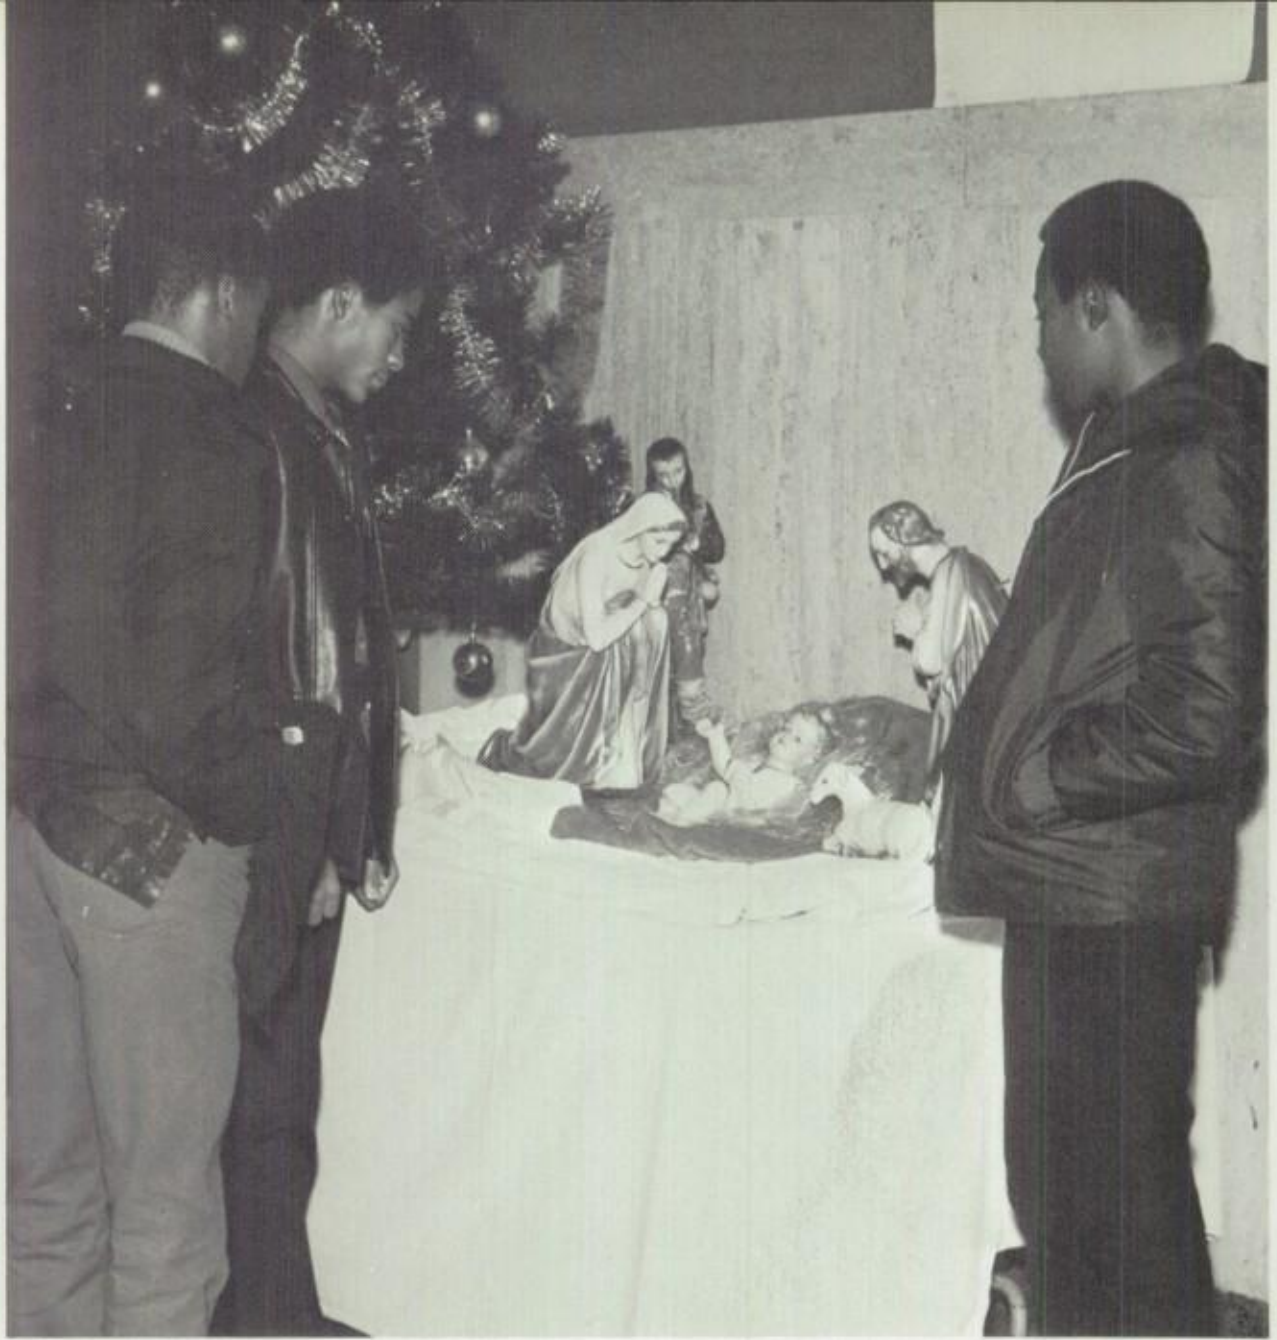

STUDENT ACTIVITIES

The Spartan Monitors, under Brother Ben's direction, insisted that we obey the rules.

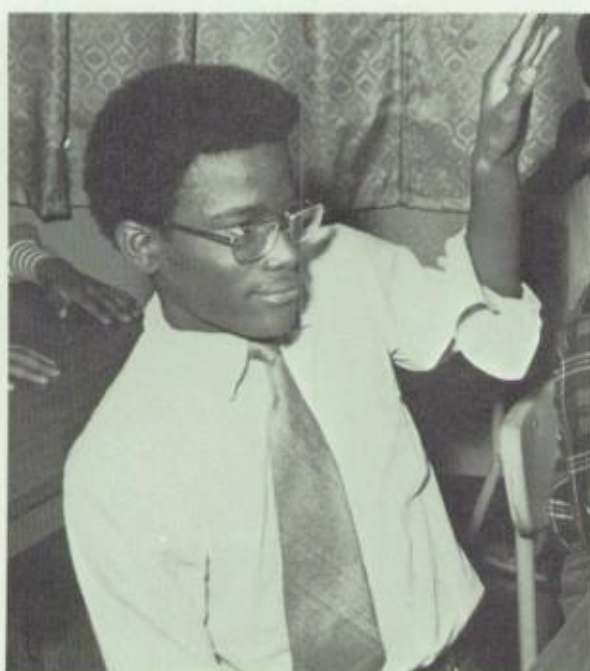

The Junior Ring Ceremony and the Christmas Crib are among the more impressive religious events.

After it was blessed by Father Tom, James Crowell received his ring from Ronald Hunt.

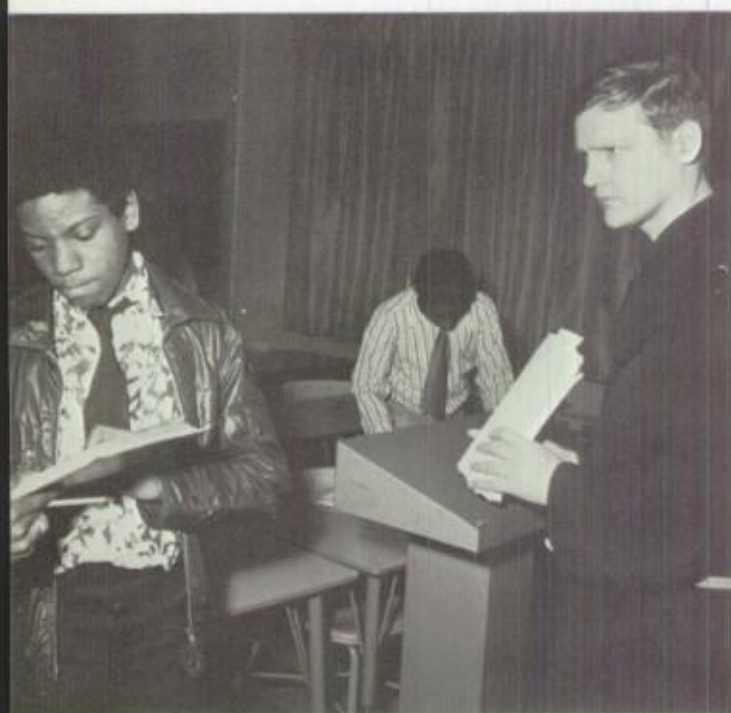

Religion classes, with their discussions of vital issues, are part of the Hales curriculum.

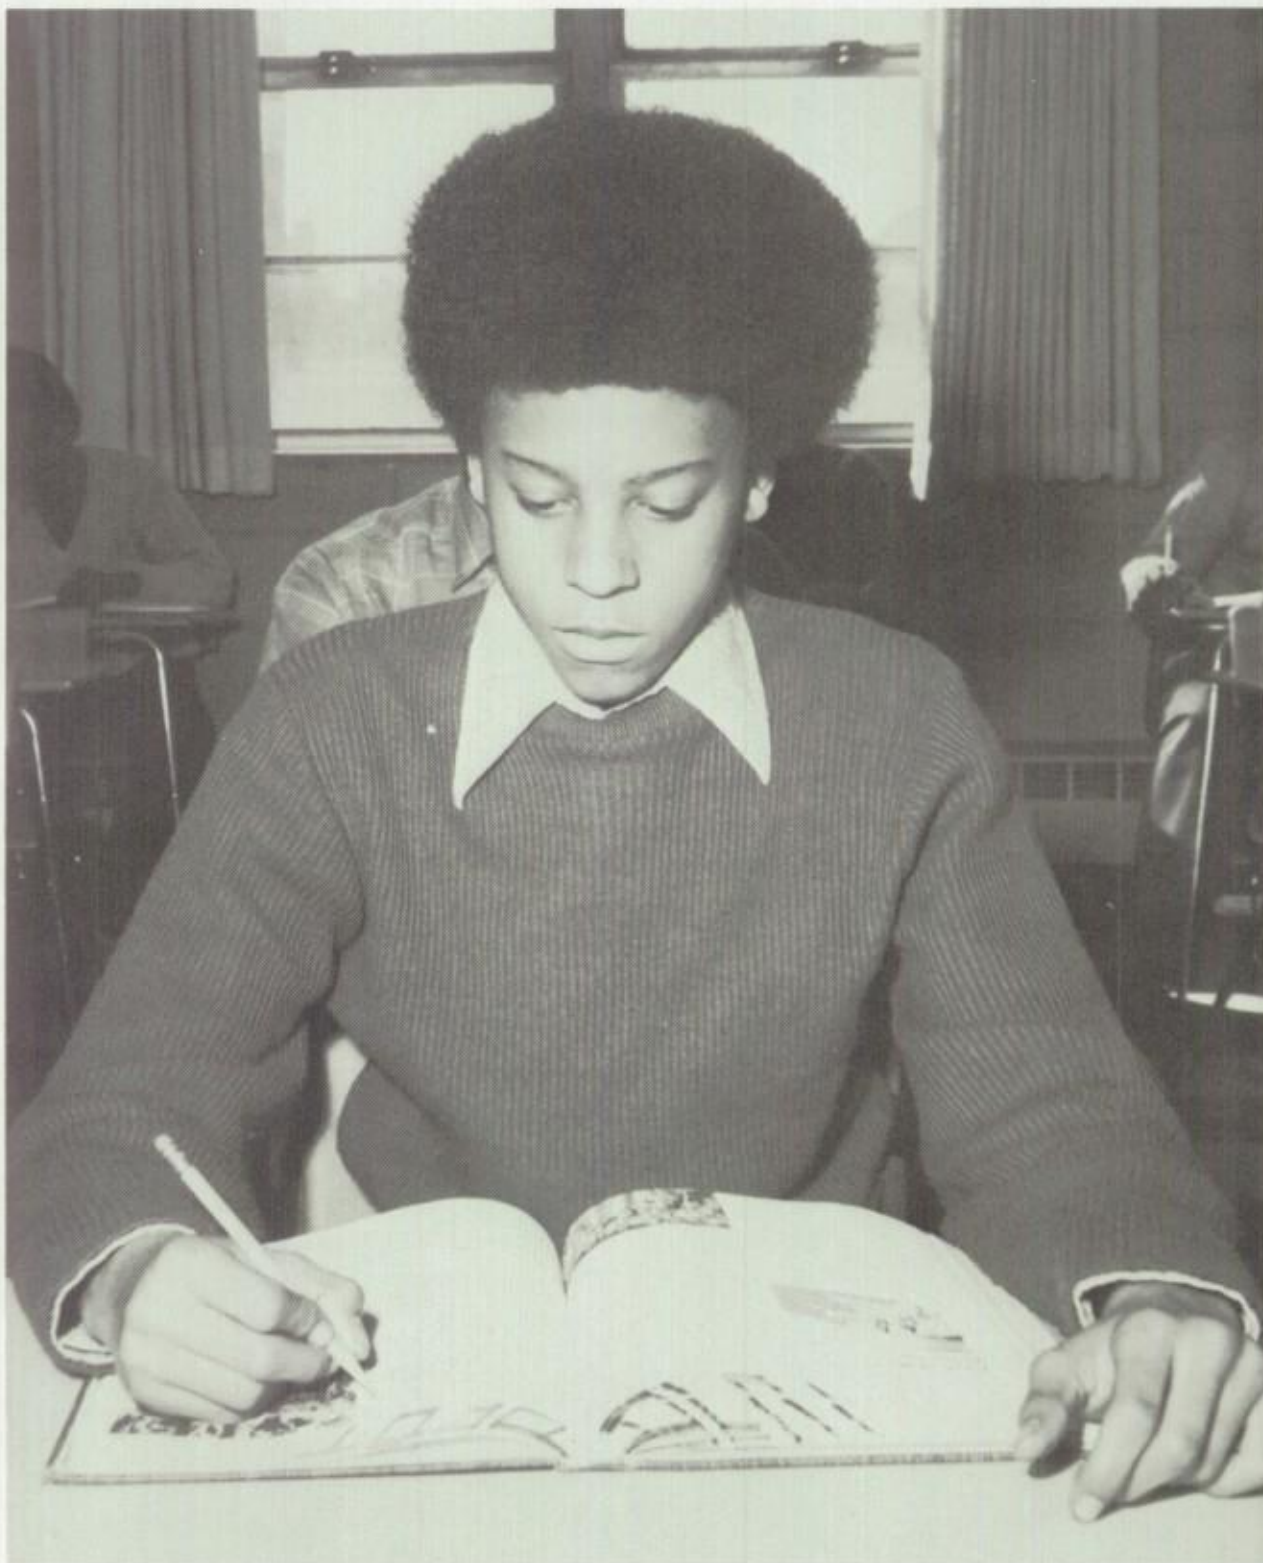

Father Eugene moderated the discussions and also made use of many tapes and films.

The freshmen enjoyed viewing filmstrips and learning to read maps.

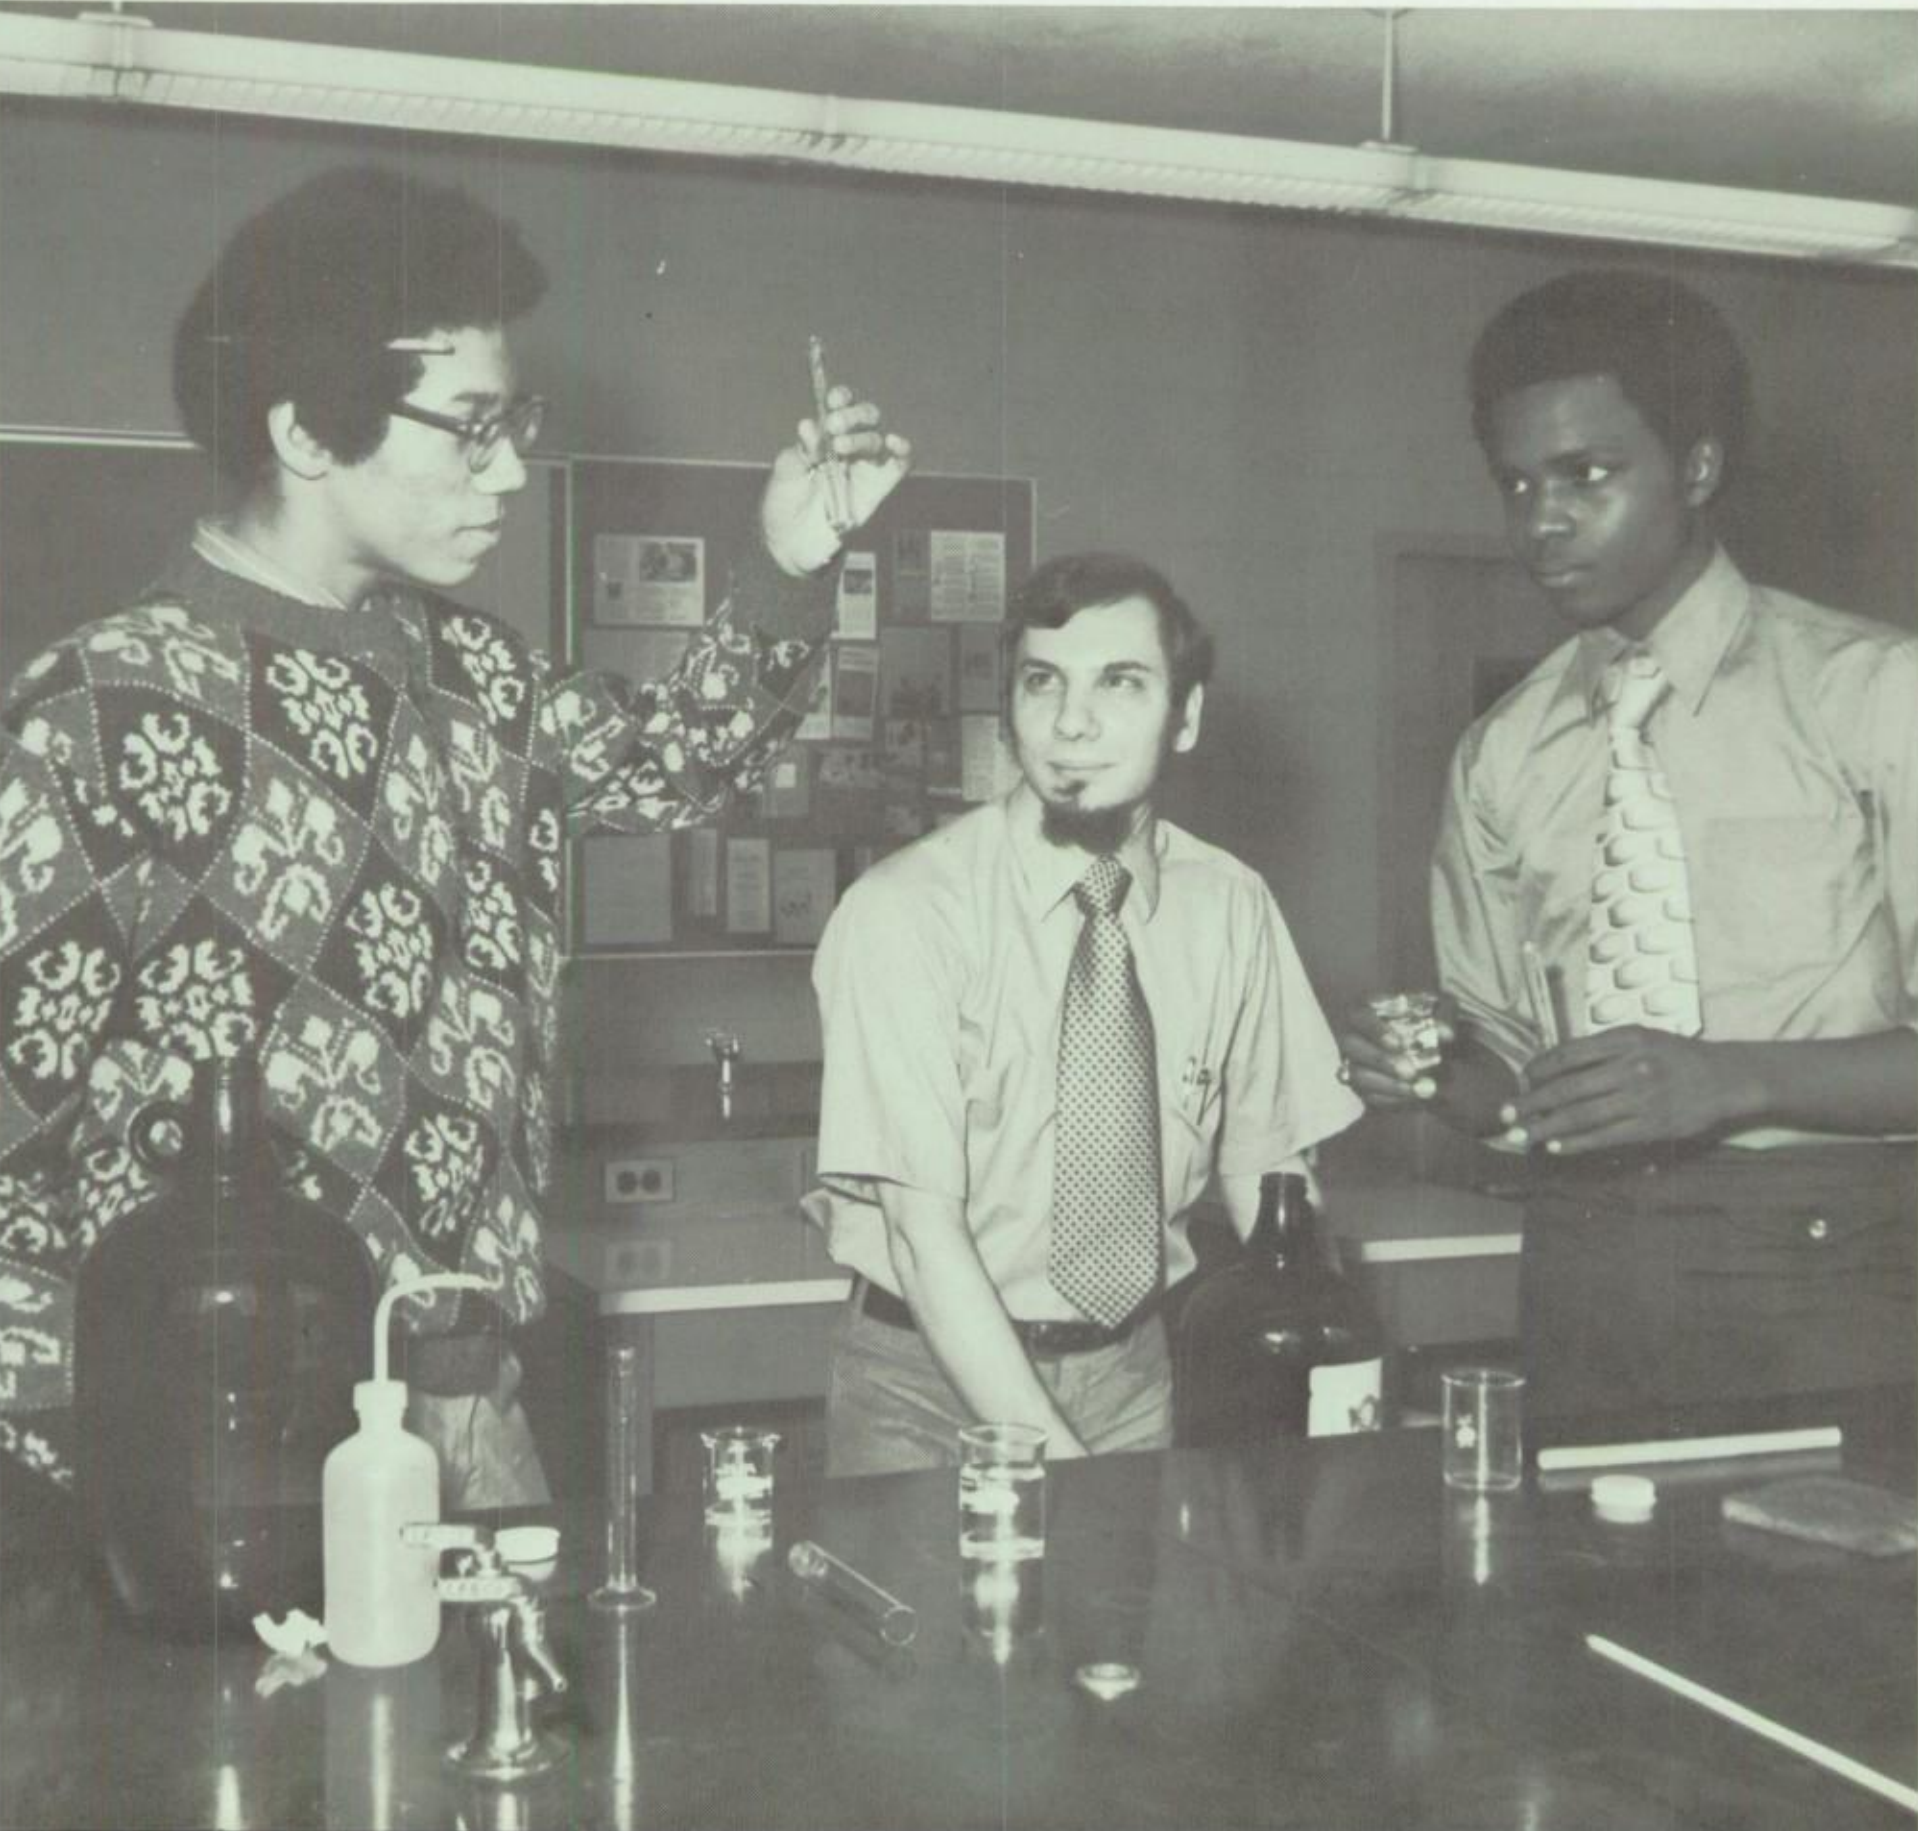

How did Fr. Randolph ever find a book like this?

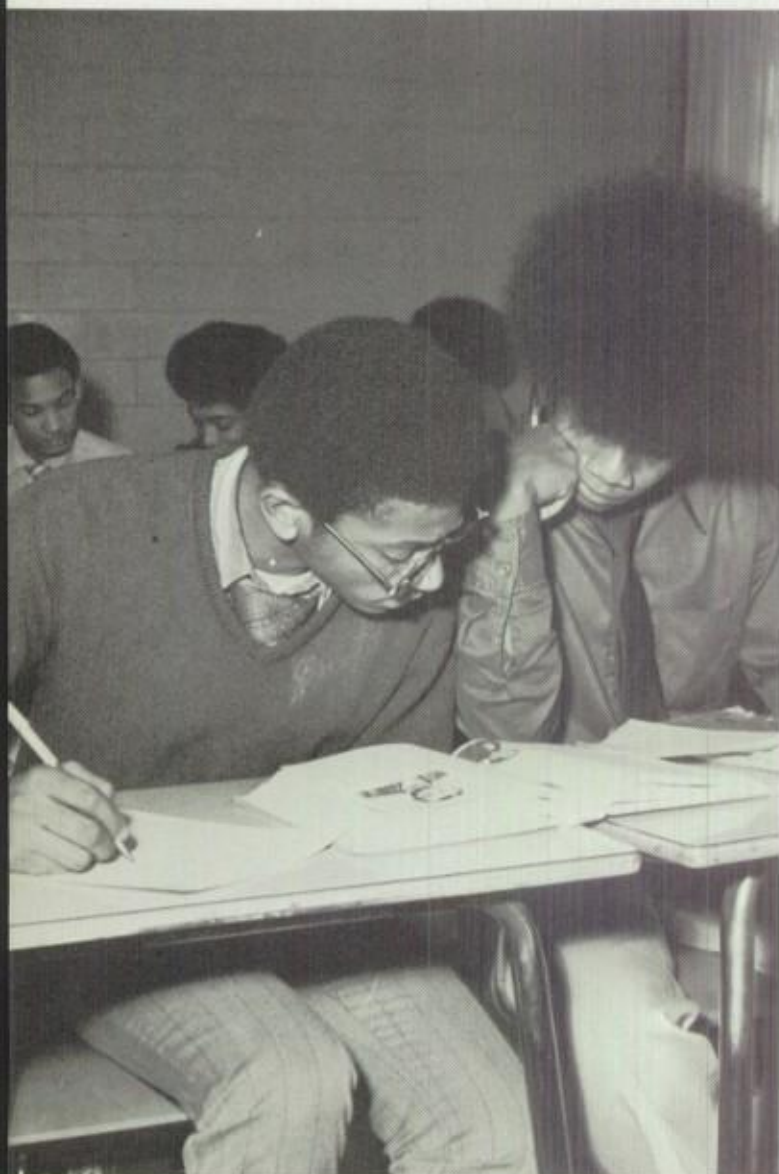

Mrs. Olson's Spanish classes made the language seem easy.

Darryl Summers enjoyed every minute.

Robert Davis and Jeffrey Dennis worked on a tough problem.

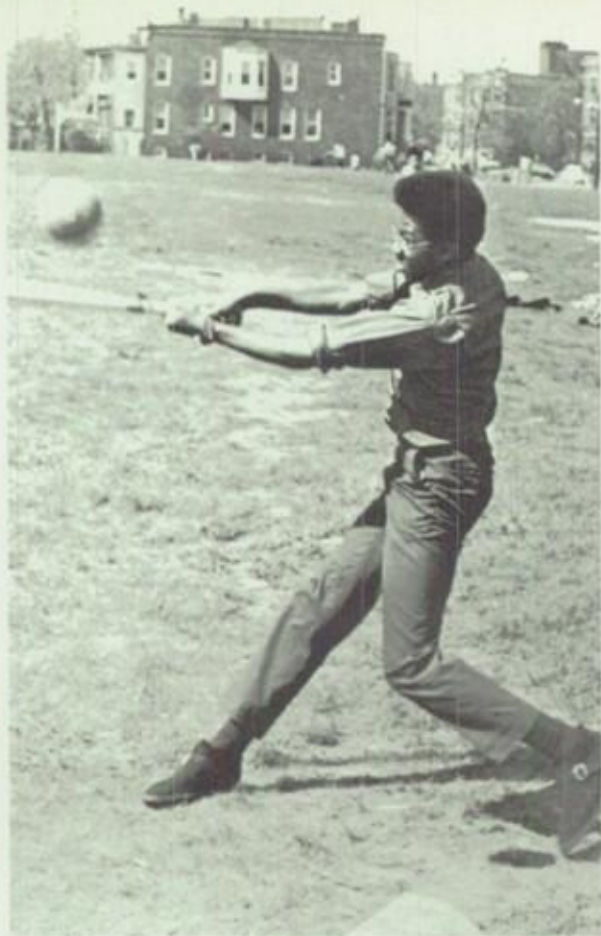

After school projects offered opportunities for artistic expression.

Brother Andrew's typing classes taught us a very useful skill.

Gym class is a part of the day for every freshman and sophomore.

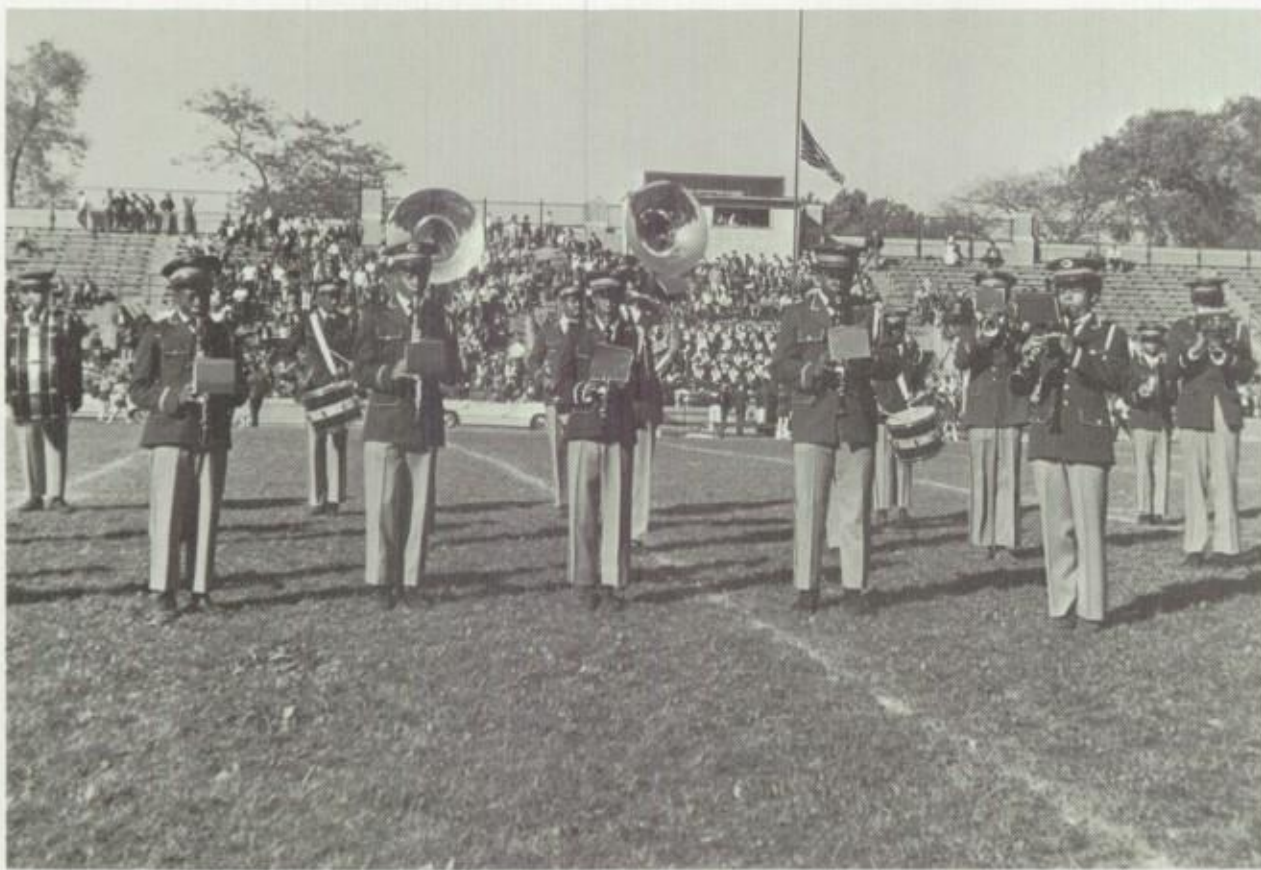

Marvin Irving and Donald Dickerson had it figured out.

Taking tests is an unpleasant, but necessary part of education.

Under the direction of Mr. Ted Brown, the band lent class to many school functions.

Decked out in their new uniforms, band members proudly paraded on State Street.

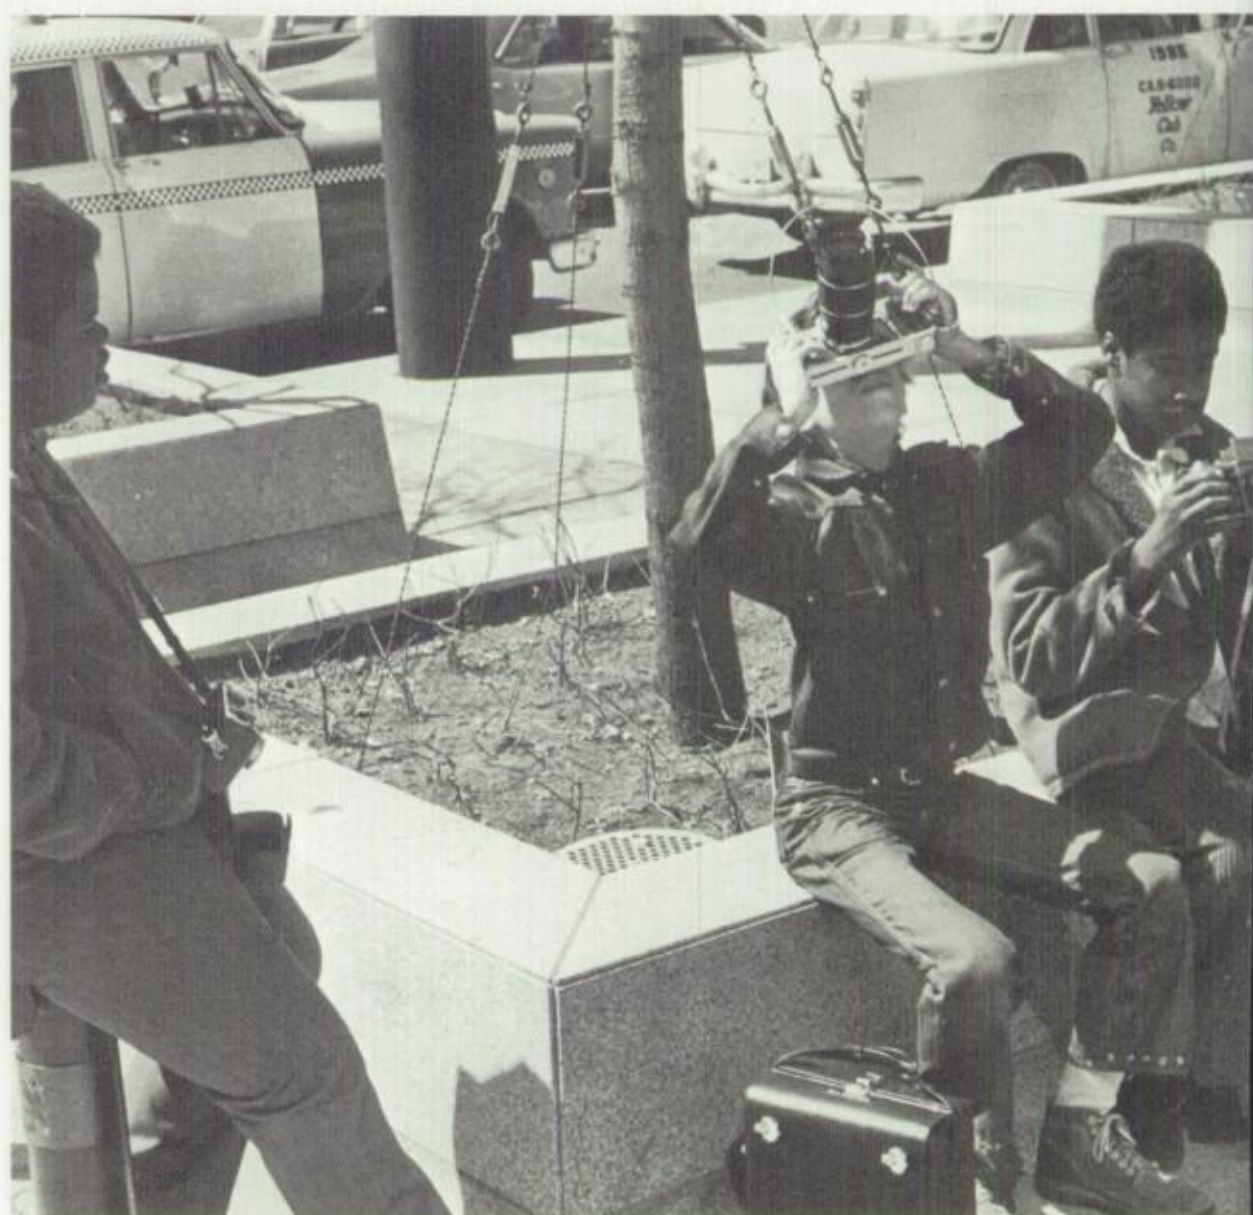

The new band uniforms were paid off with the help of a delicious Smorgasbord and a hilarious Donkey Basketball game.

Father Chris taught an elective in photography twice a week.

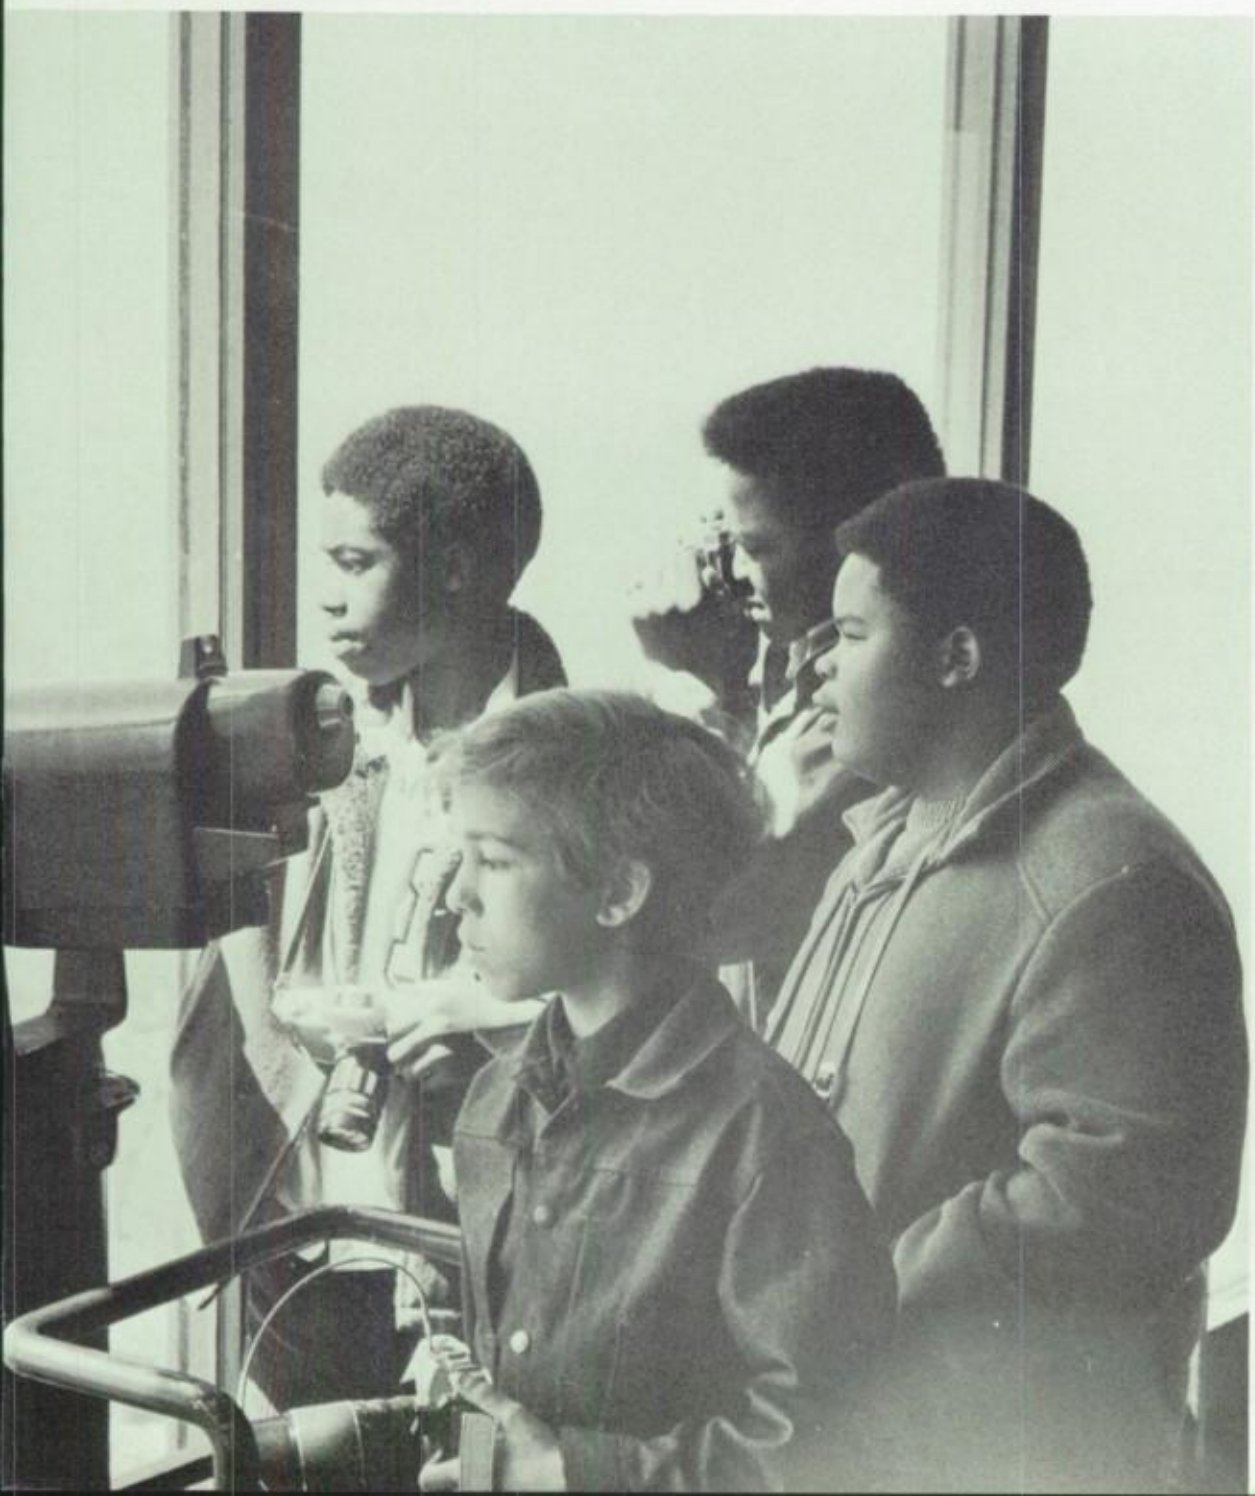

The photo students shot from the top and the bottom of the Hancock Building.

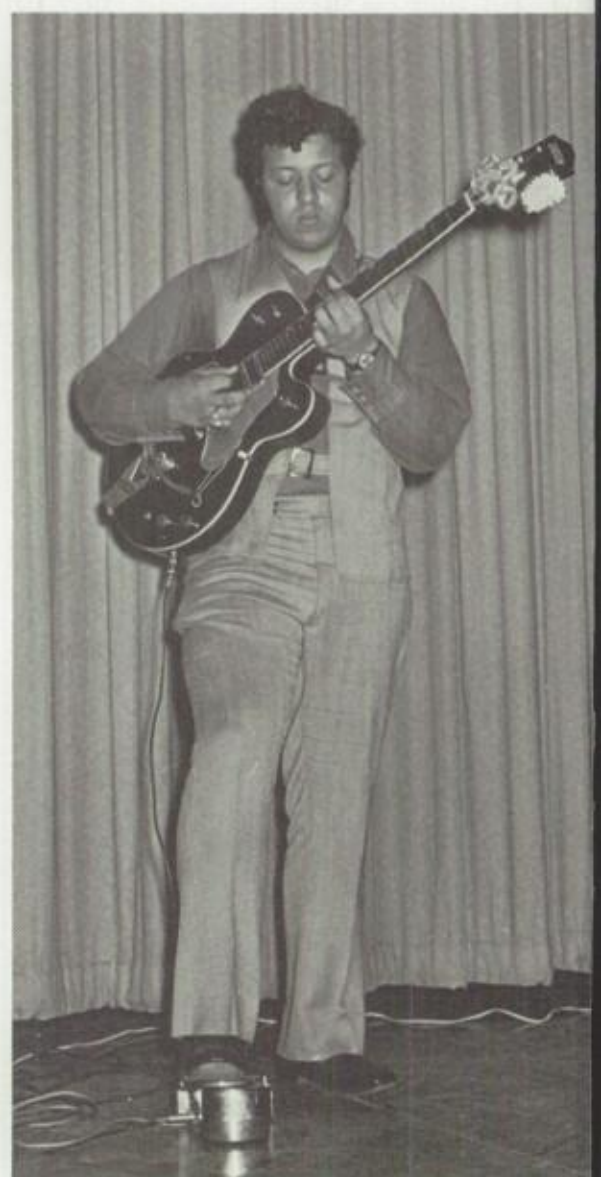

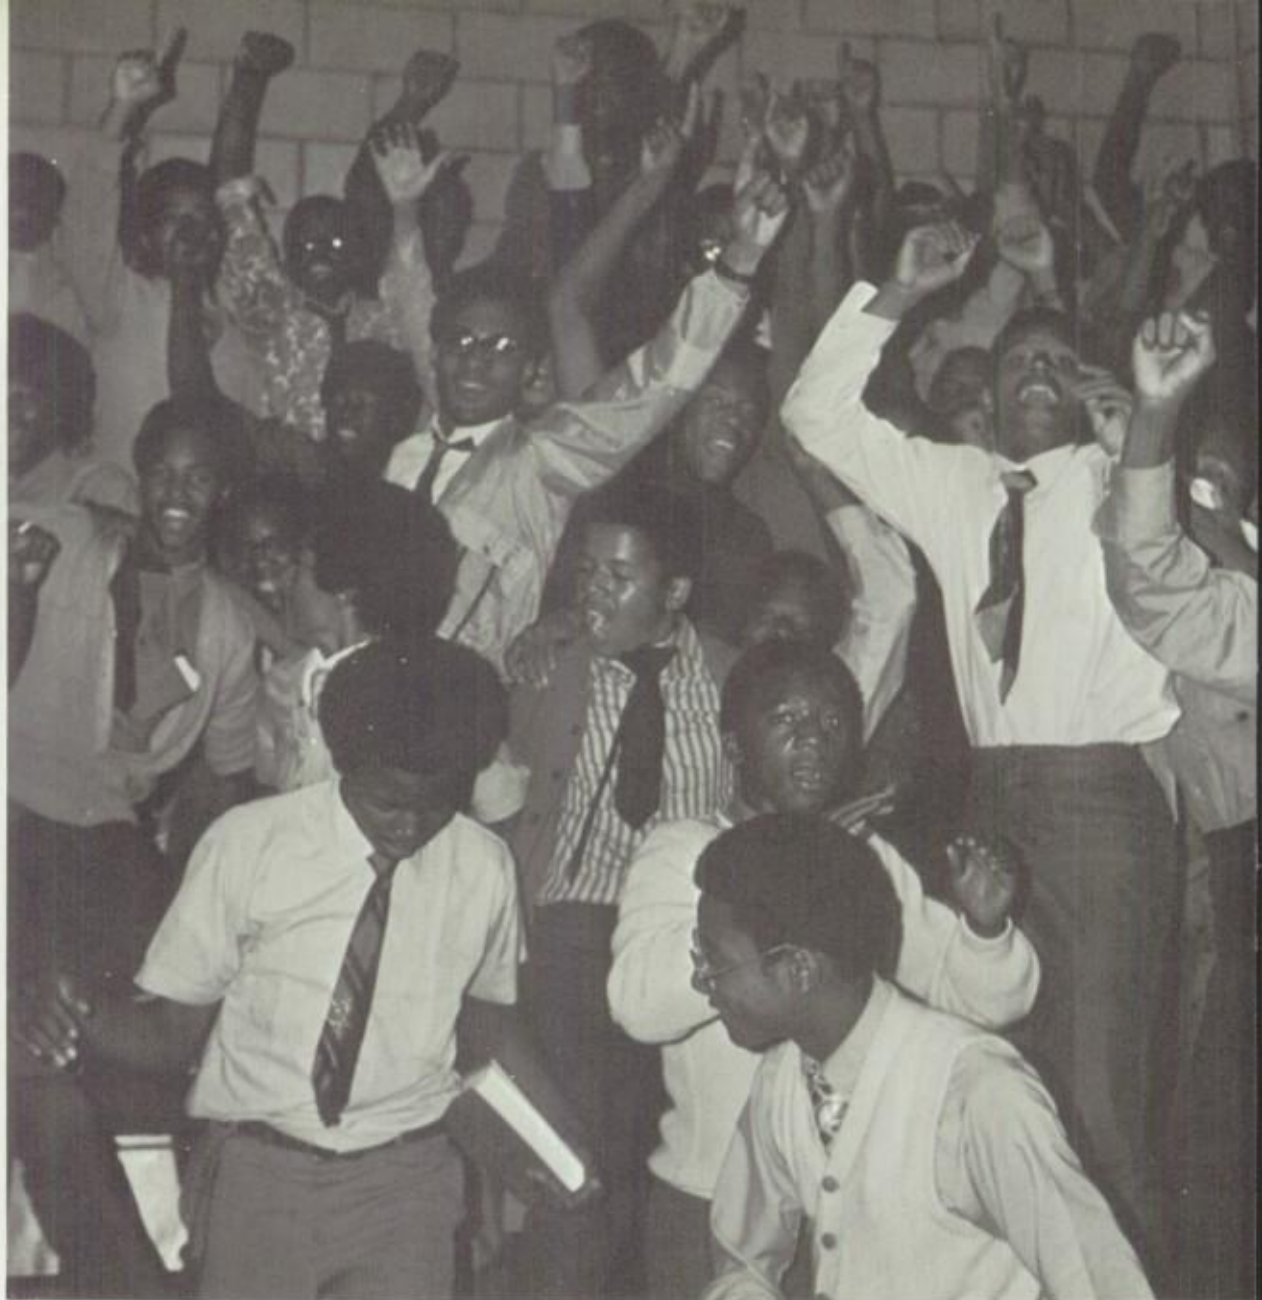

The best part of the course was the camping trips to Wisconsin.

Senior Riley Seals was an efficient assistant to the visiting Walinge photographer.

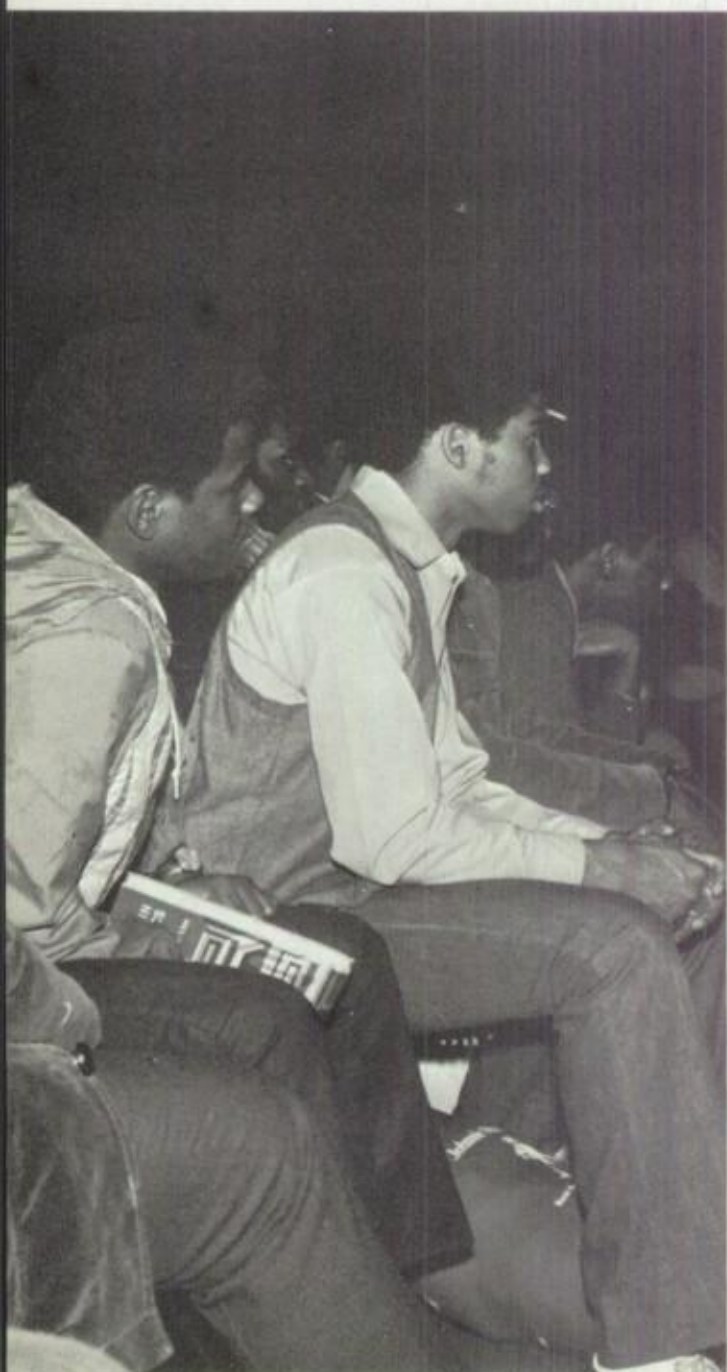

Assemblies and Pep Rallies were always enjoyable.

The annual Talent Show brings out the best in many Spartan performers.

The annual celebration of Black History Week is the occasion of an informative and entertaining assembly.

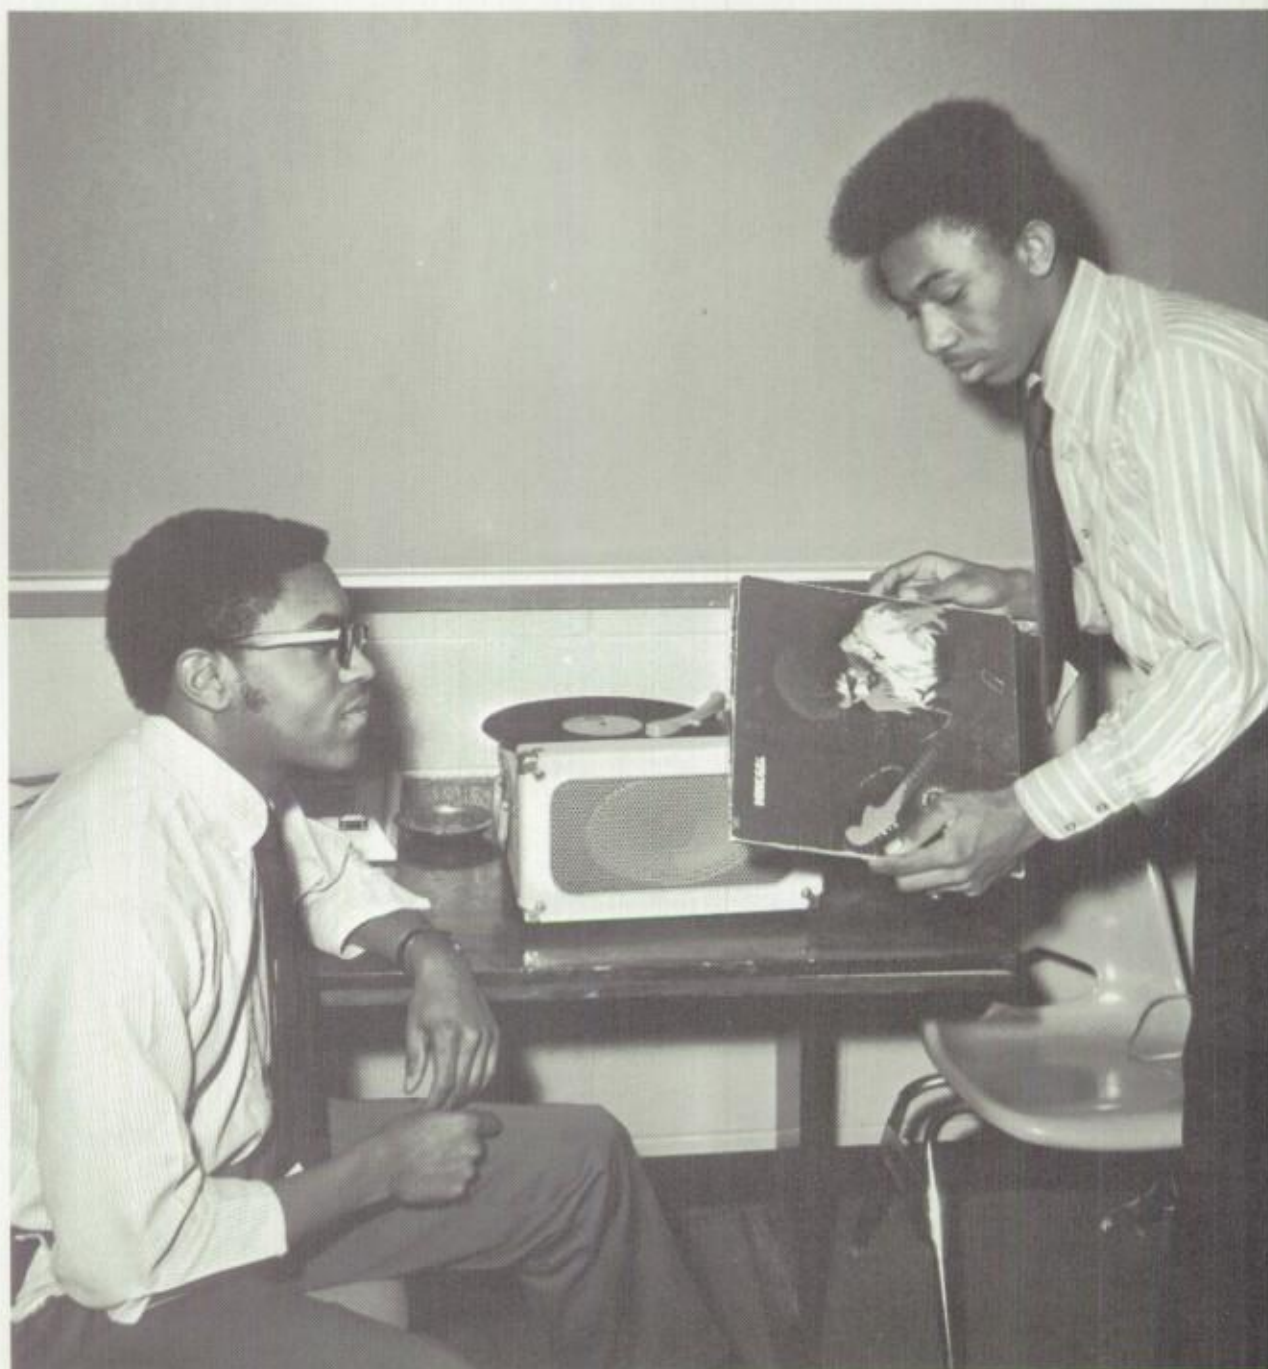

The winners of the Black History Week poetry and poster contests proudly recited and displayed their creations.

The TV Arts Club, under Mr. Olson's supervision, brought communication skills to the Spartan community.

The T.P. (Think Positive!) Room was always available for discussion of recreation.

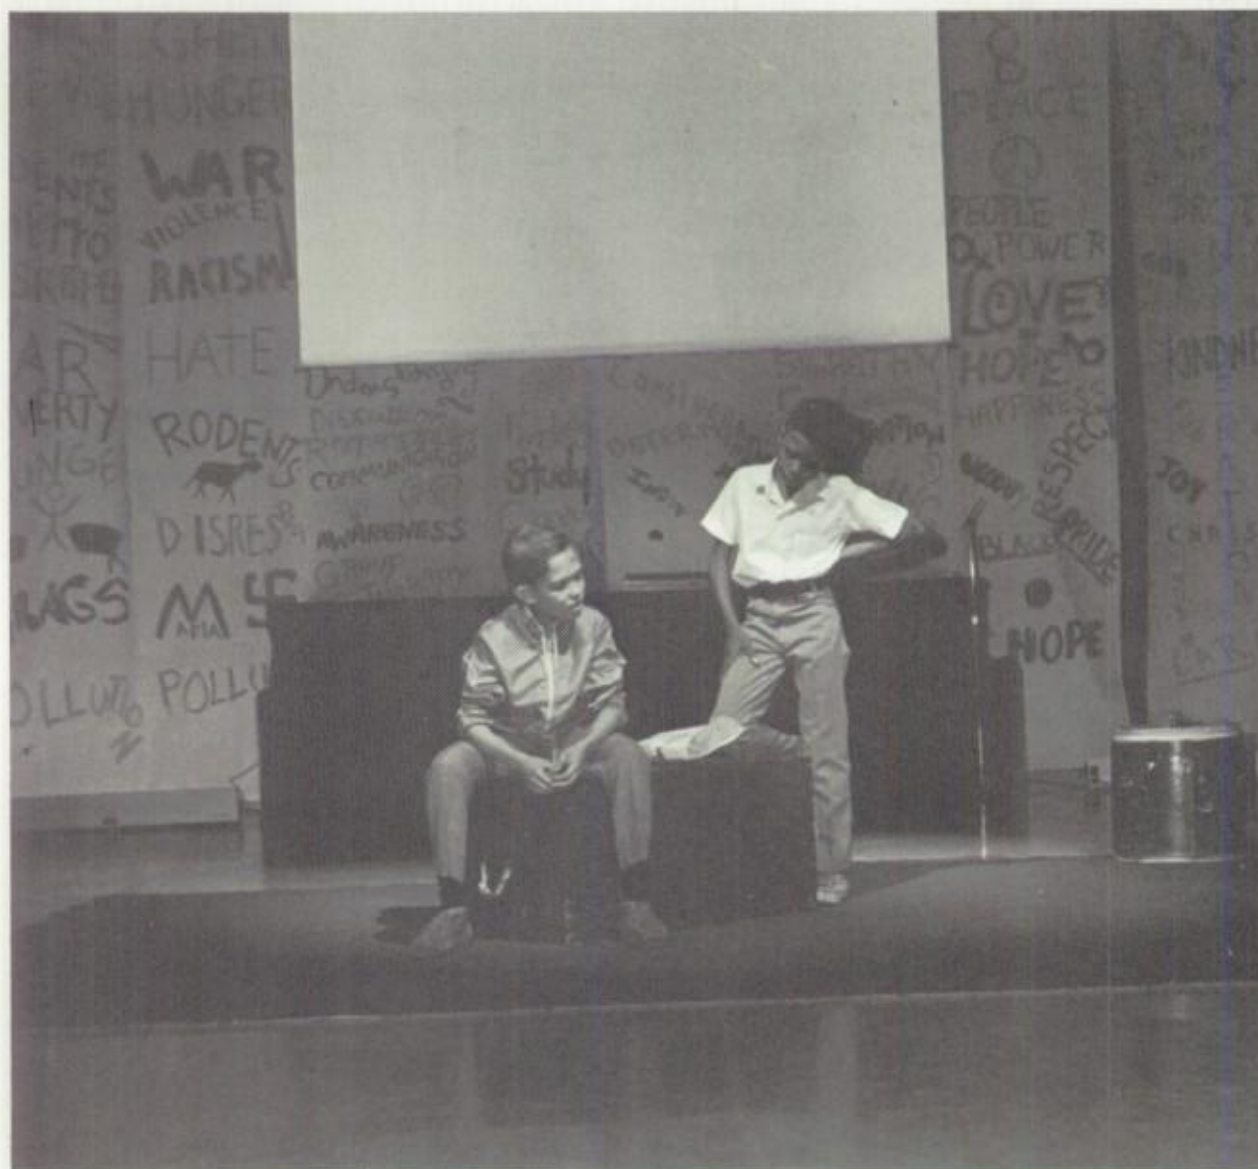

The Spartan News staff, under the editorship of Ronald Greene, rose to new journalistic heights.

The Halestones, the faculty singing group, regaled us at the Christmas assembly.

Ronald Galberth and Ronald Jackson starred in the Spartan Player production of The Pieces. The Players also presented Osei, Prince of Ghana, with Jeffrey Dennis in the title role.

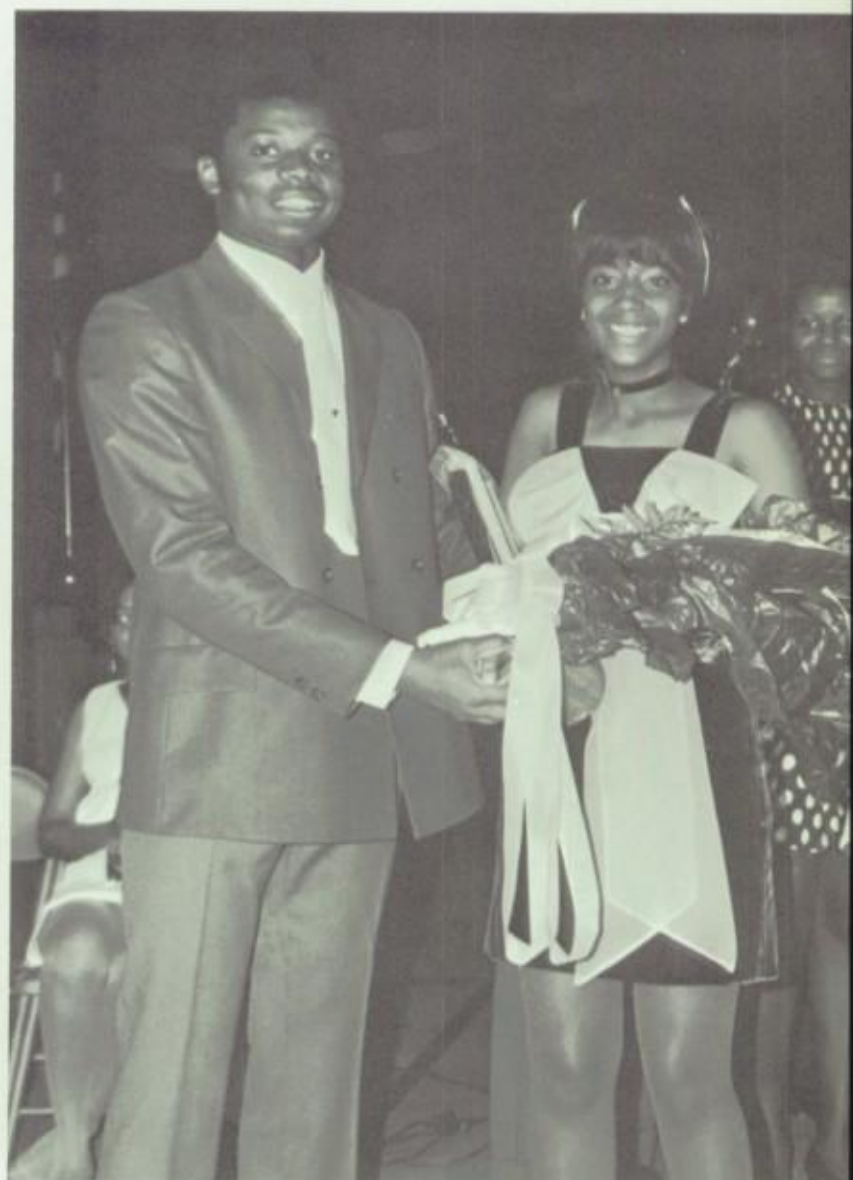

HOMECOMING

The Homecoming Dance and the football game on the following day made up a happy weekend for all the present and former Spartans who came home.

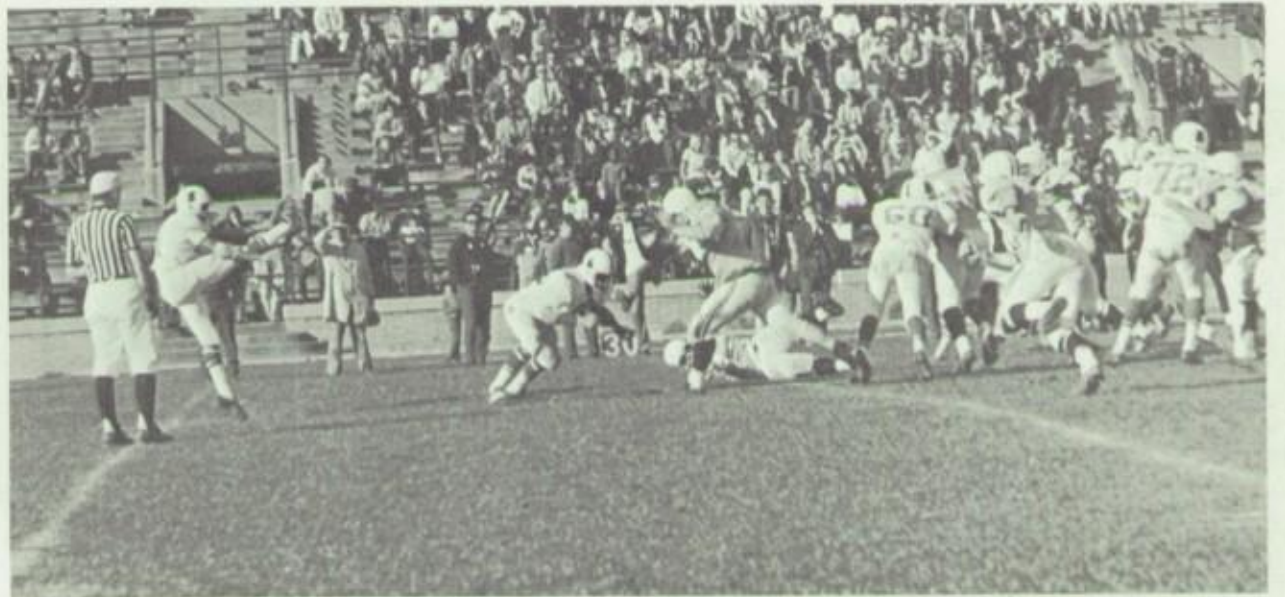

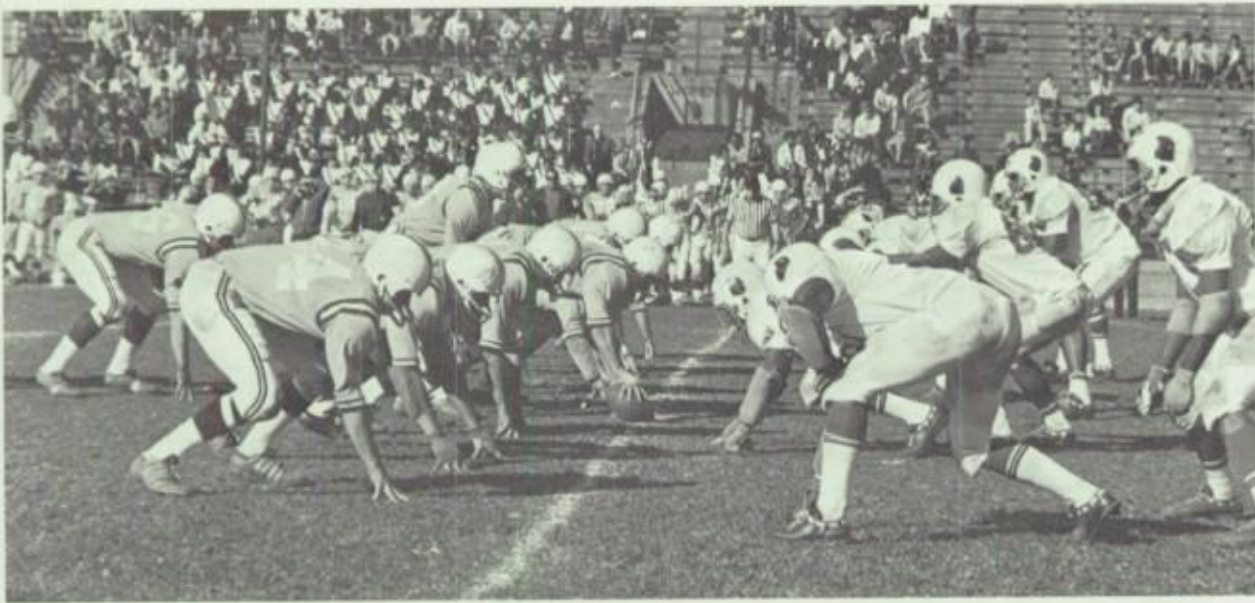

Joe Howard and Lisa Killion reigned over the festivities as Homecoming King and Queen. They led us in dance and presided over the Sunday afternoon halftime parade.

FOOTBALL

Although they posted a losing season, the Spartans played a mature brand of football.

The players, their managers and coaches posed for the official team photograph.

The Football Banquet marked the end of football at Hales. Coach Lyne was presented a commemorative plaque by his players.

After the meal many trophies and awards were presented to deserving players.

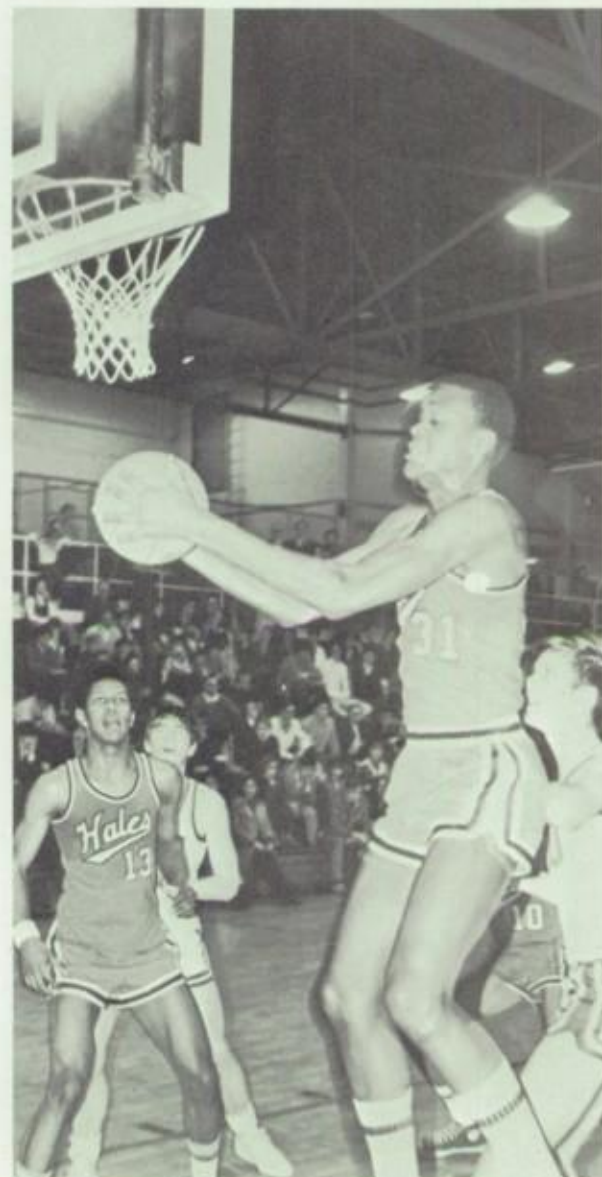

The Spartan Cheerleaders kept the fans enthused at football and basketball games.

The freshman football team gave valuable experience to gridiron beginners.

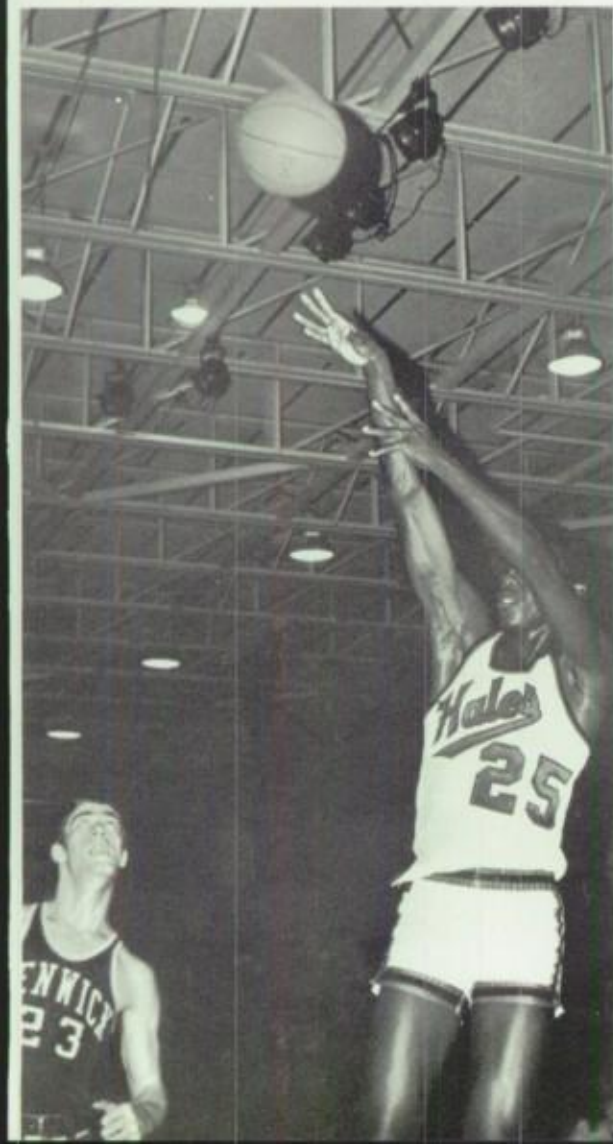

BASKETBALL

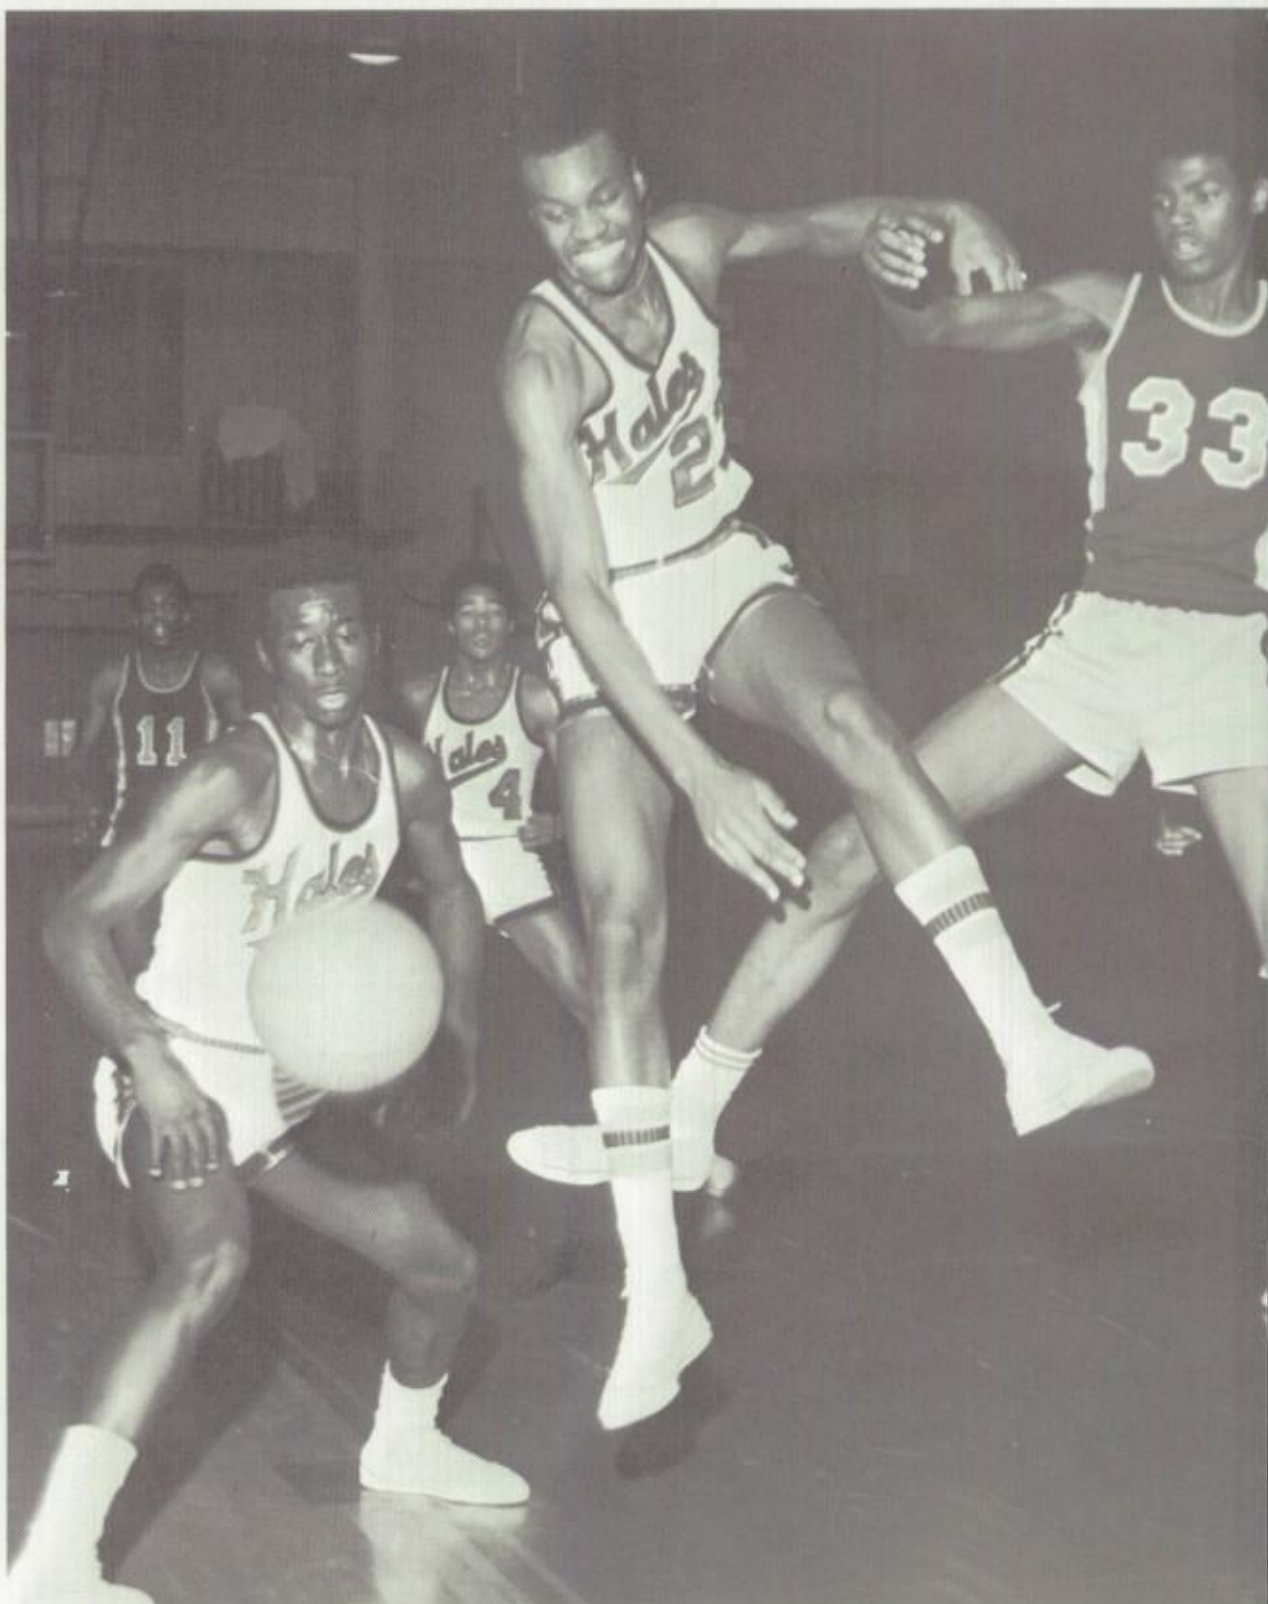

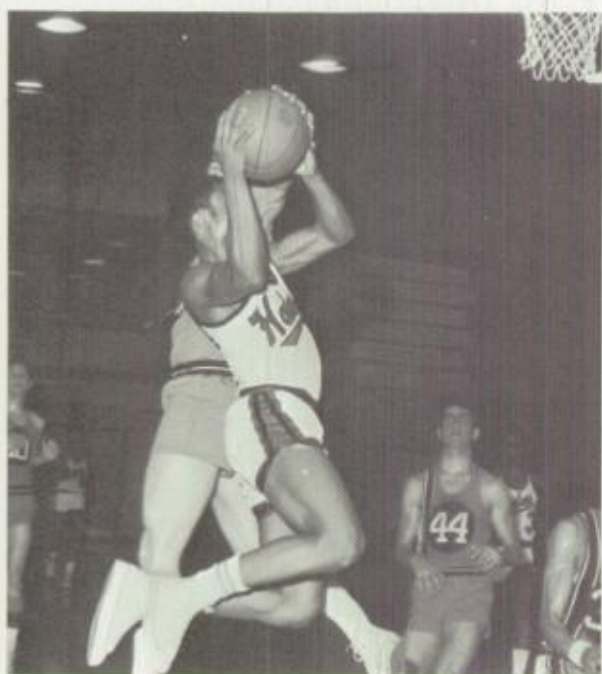

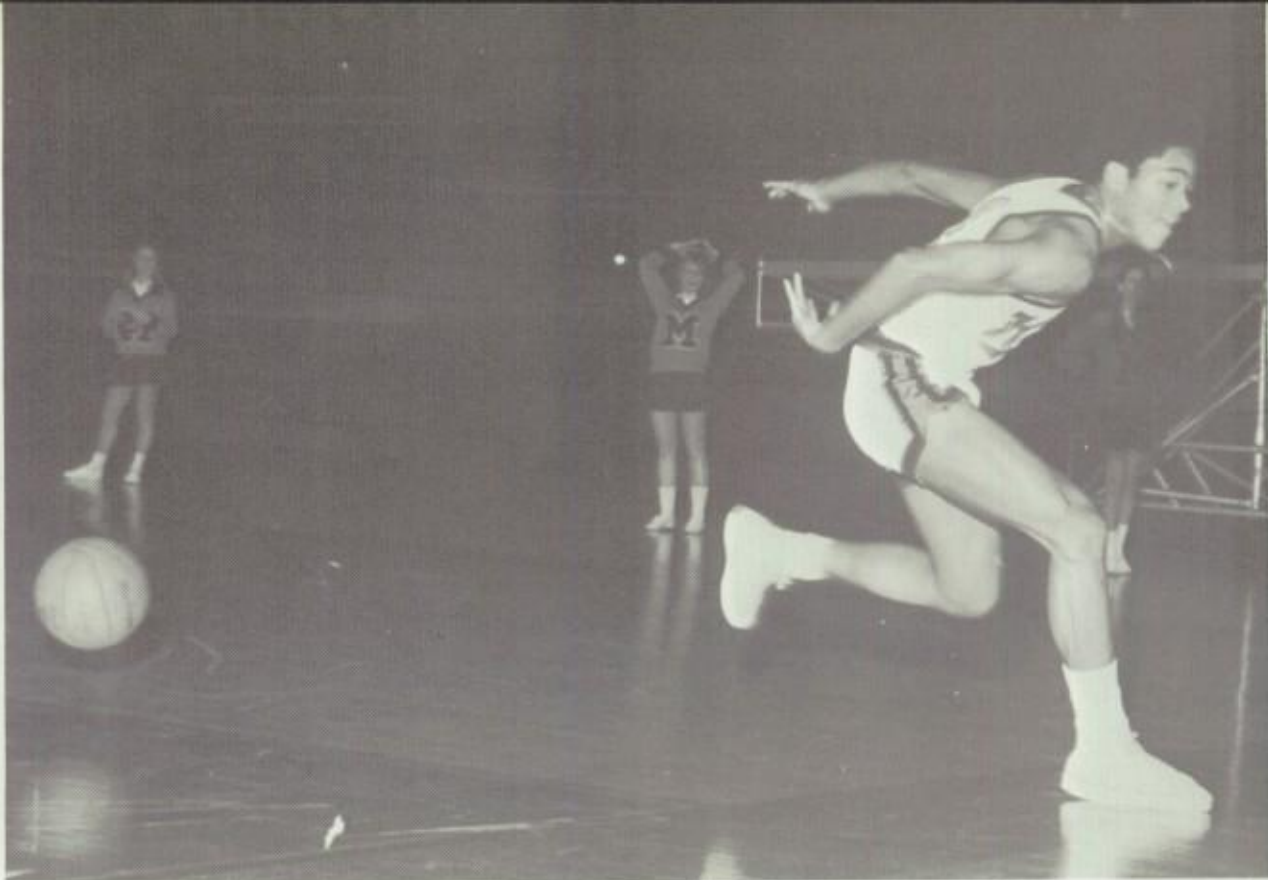

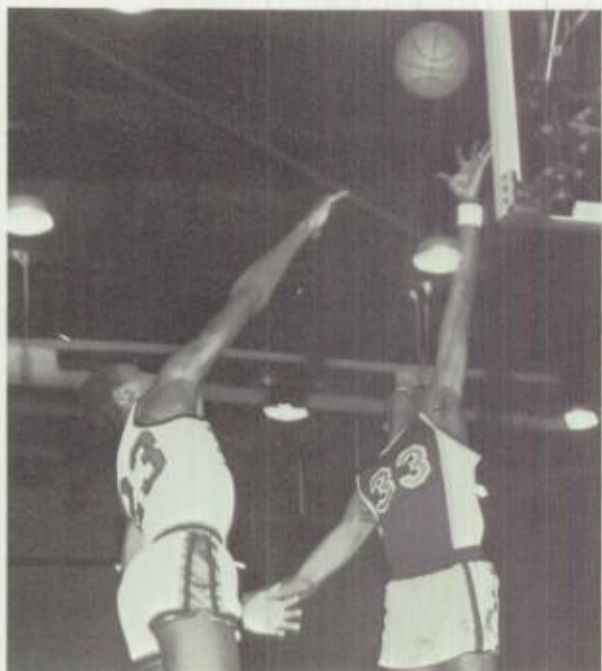

Big Jeff Wilkins was a welcome addition to the Varsity cagers.

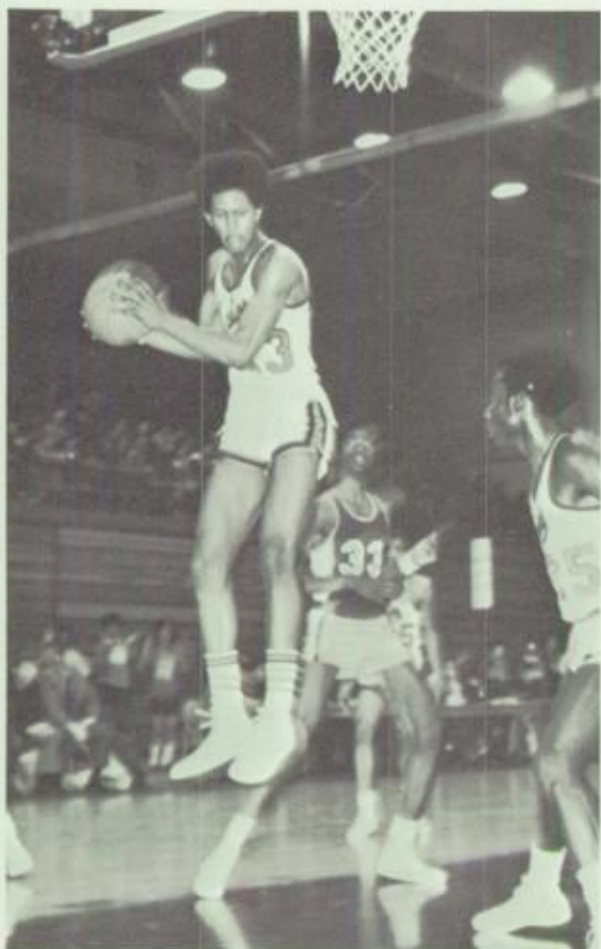

Al Williams and Jesse Williams filled in the strong backcourt.

Now a North Section team, Hales easily made the playoffs.

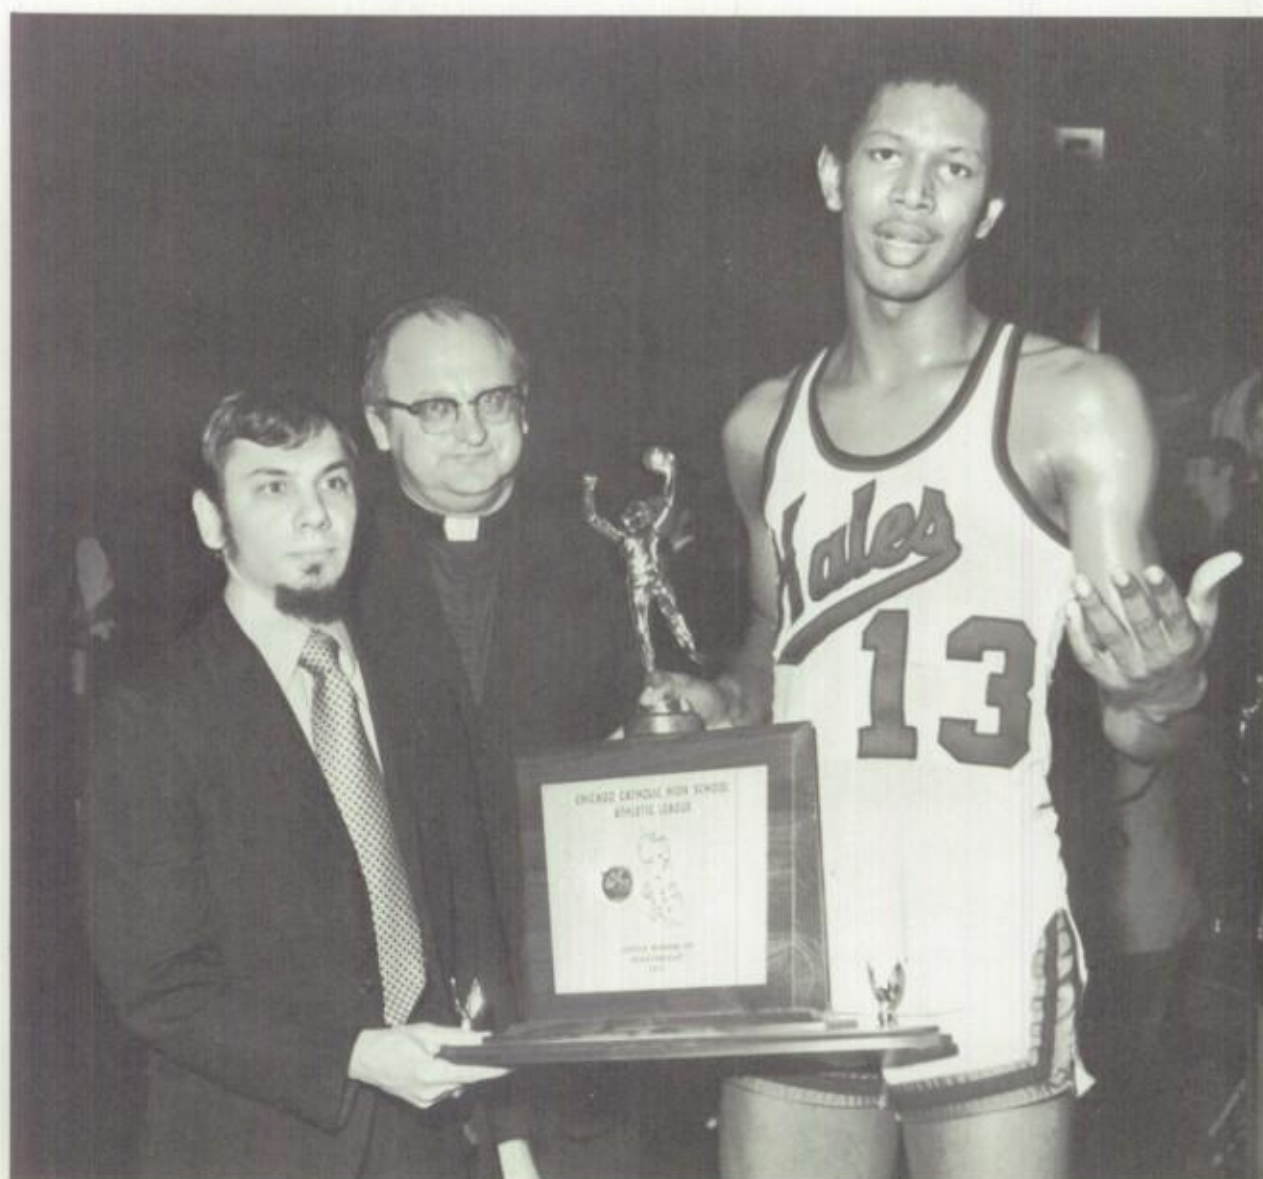

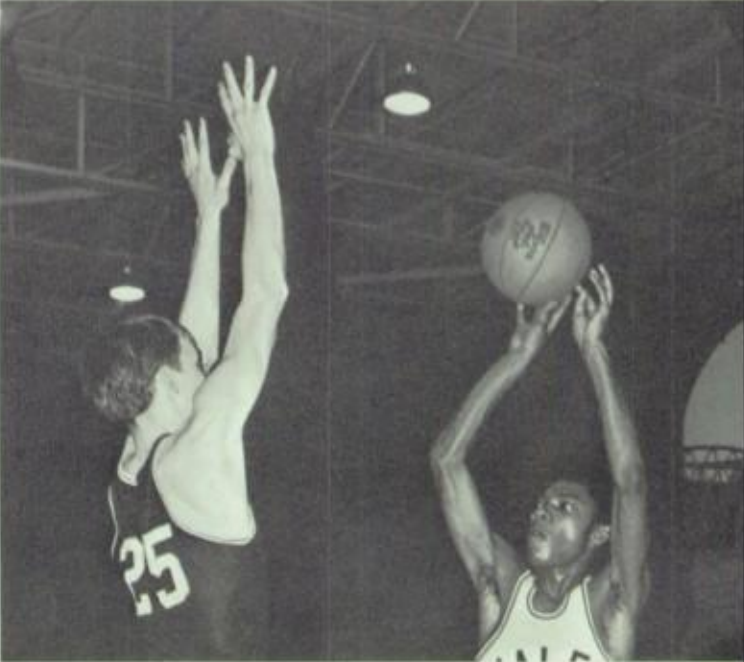

Or almost all the rest, we should say, because we couldn't beat Gordon Tech all year, even in the championship game.

Jesse Williams wanted someone else to accept the runner-up trophy.

Joe Moffa and an unhappy Coach McKiel headed for the locker room after a bad first half.

BASEBALL

Garnett got the coach's sign before stepping up to the plate.

Despite the losing season, the players in the dugout encouraged their teammates.

The Brother Rice runner got back just in time on Clarence Mitchell's pickoff play to Leroy Whitten.

A foul tip got by Catcher Kenneth Harvey.

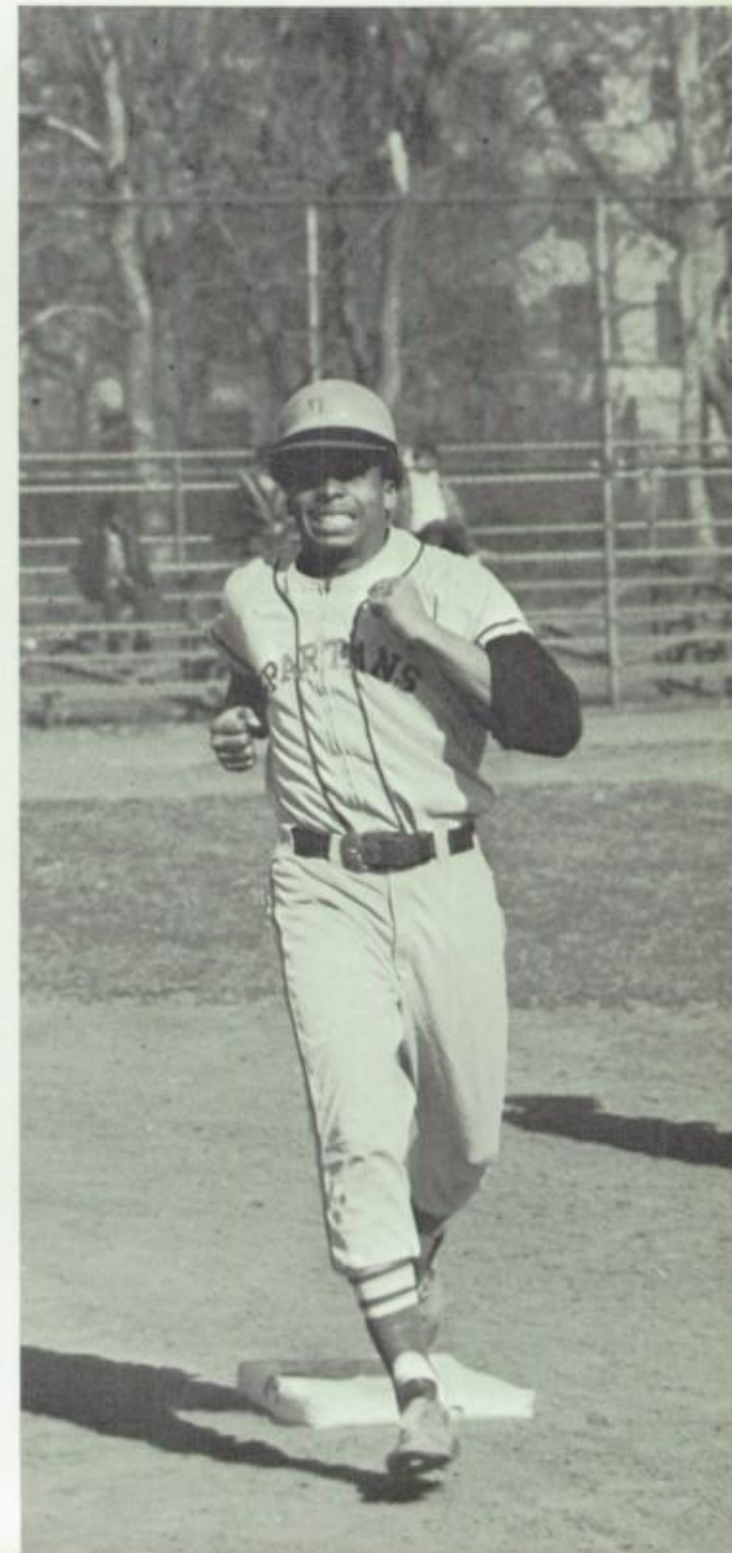

Father Chris and those on the bench watched as the Spartans struggled with their defense.

Pitcher Clarence Mitchell beat out an infield hit ... but Farly Miles was retired on the next play.

Catcher Ken Harvey sadly watched an opponent's hit go for extra bases.

TRACK

The Spartans excelled both in relay and individual events.

Coach Bill Hall admired one of the team's many trophies.

Brother Ben and Mr. Hall had words of encouragement for every runner.

Coaching track is a difficult and absorbing job.

To the victors went the trophies.

Danny Velasquez and Joe Howard felt the effects of total effort.

Juniors Larry Lawrence and Leo Anderson made all the arrangements.

Brother Ben told the band leader to play lots of jazz.

Jerome Morgan, Prom King, royally led the festivities.

Prom King and Queen.

Brother Crispin escorted Mrs. Catherine Brisco, while Ricardo Barber performed as Master of Ceremonies.

What you say, Ricky Powell!

Shedrick Woods had good reason to be happy.

The balcony above the ballroom was a very romantic spot.

An elegant dinner, dancing and pictures ... and the Senior Prom was already just a memory.

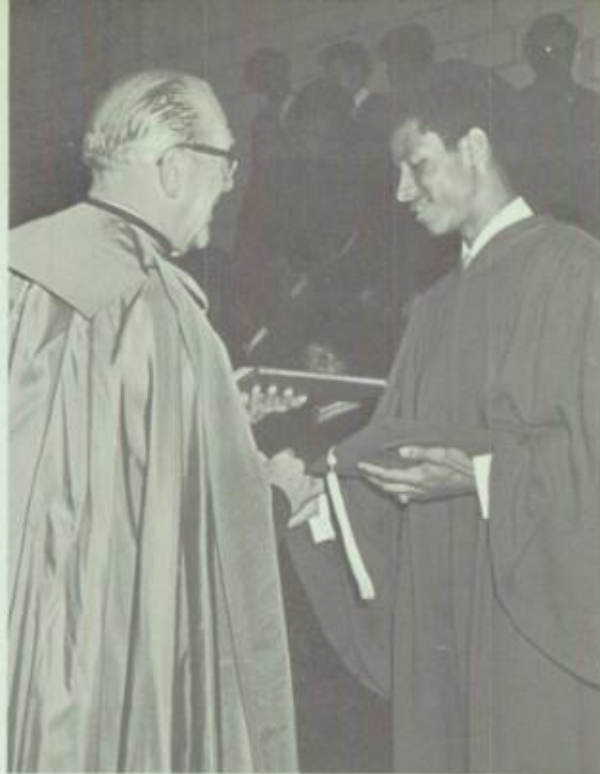

Brother Benedict, Senior Class Moderator, led the Graduates' procession.

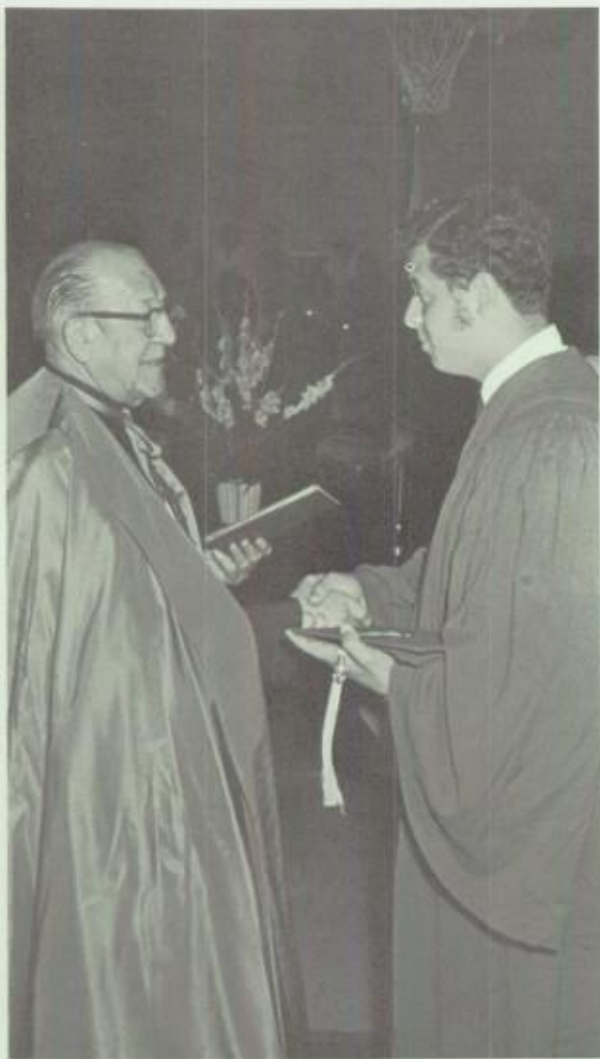

The principal speaker of the evening was Mr. Joseph Bertrand, Treasurer of the City of Chicago.

GRADUATION

Monsignor Vitha, representing Cardinal Cody, presented the long-awaited diplomas to the Spartan graduates.

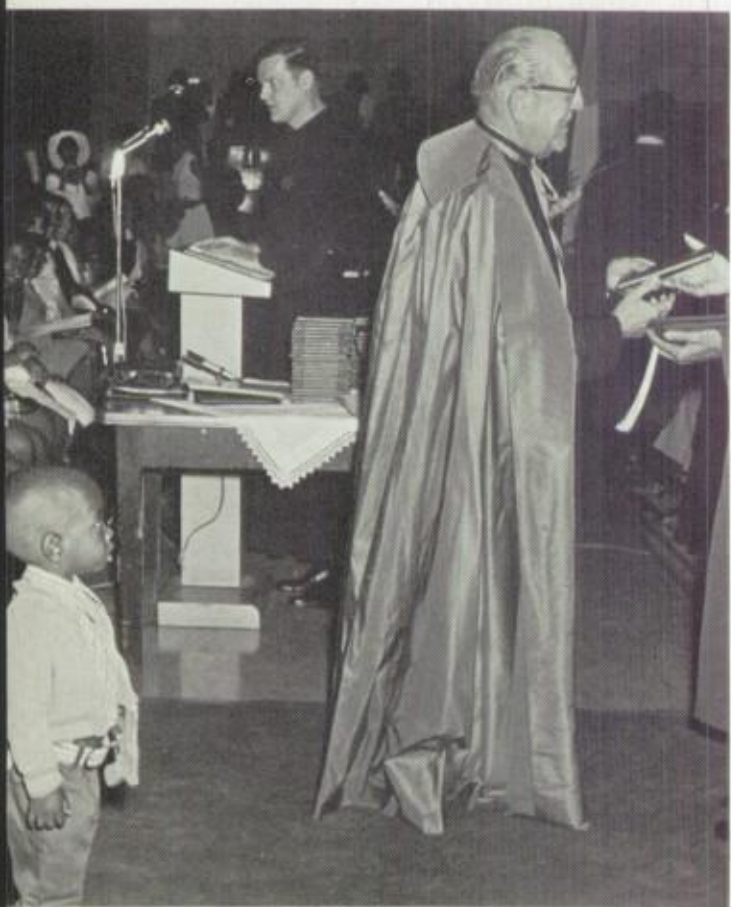

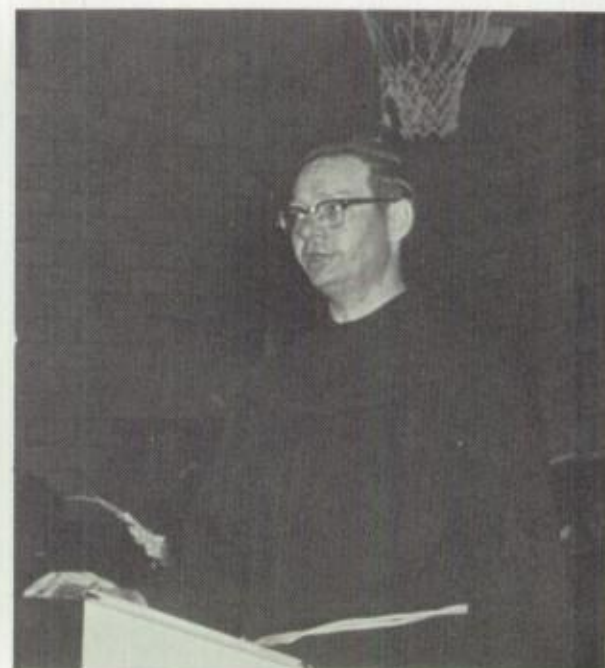

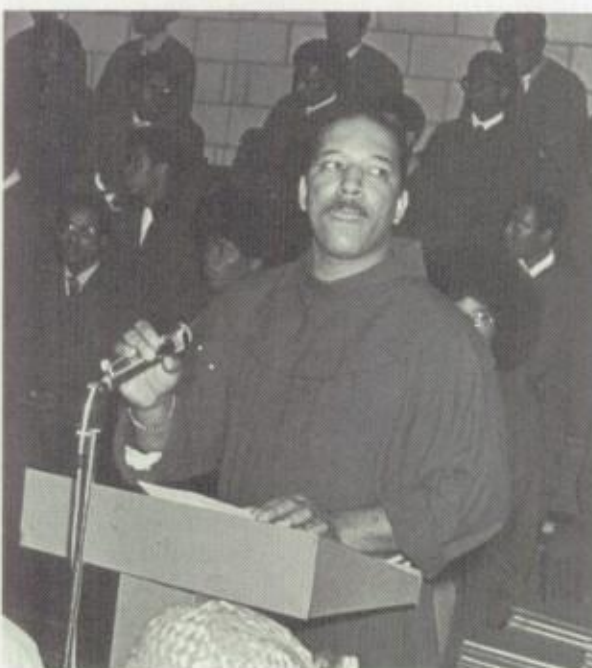

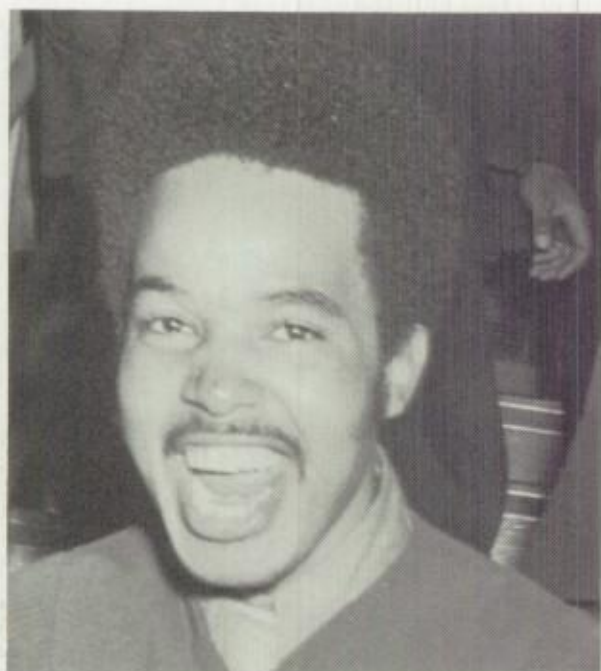

All listened attentively to the inspiring addresses of Richard Powell and Peter McCullar.

Richard Powell congratulated Glenn Hassell.

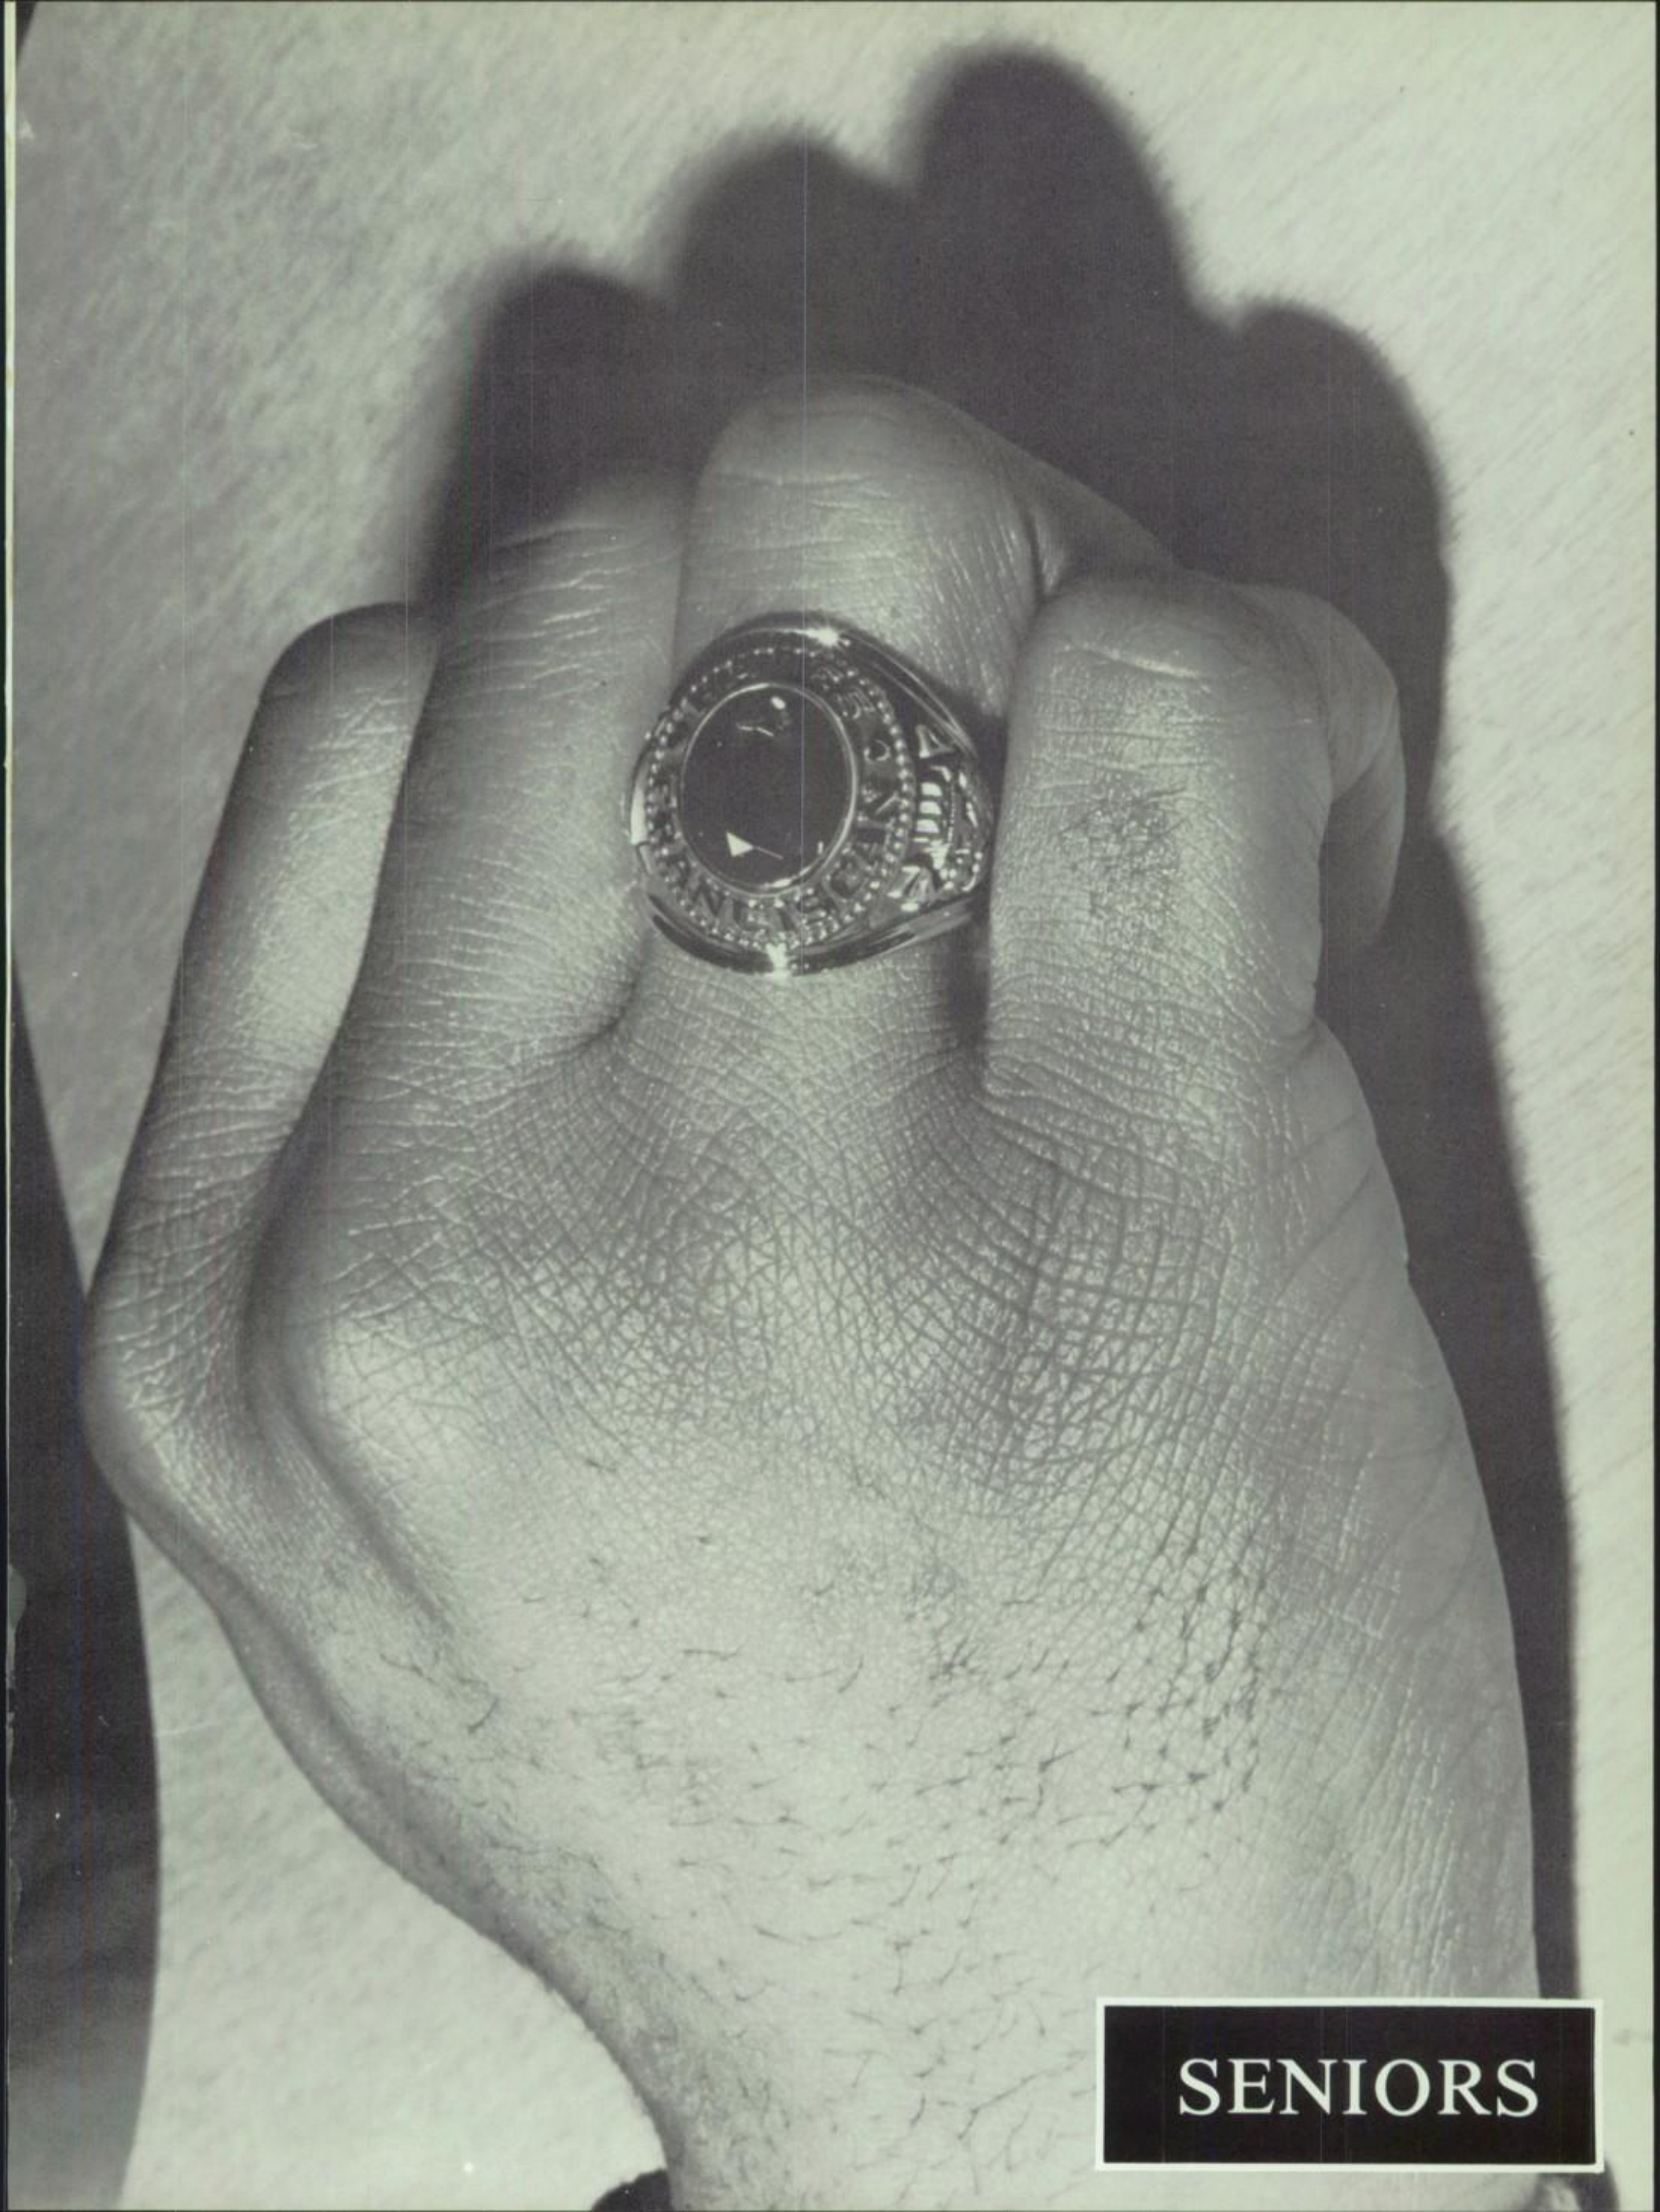

Bertrand Simpson showed the joy of one who has succeeded.

A "future Spartan" tried to share the limelight with Msgr. Vitha.
